PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners,

The Epiphany we celebrate today is the manifestation of Christ to the wise men as representatives of the Gentiles. We could, however, consider other epiphanies in the life of our Lord, such as His encounter with the shepherds during the holy night, His meeting in the temple with Simeon and Anna the prophetess, the events of His baptism at the river Jordan, the moving scene on Mount Tabor, the apparition of the risen Christ to His apostles in the Upper Room, and the very solemn scene on Mount Olivet at His Ascension.

It is important that we celebrate the encounter of Christ with the Magi and His other self-revelations. We should meditate and reflect upon these great events in the Lord's life and in the history of salvation. They should move us, inspire us, and warm our hearts. But all of this will remain on the level of theory and passing emotion unless we find an application of it to our own spiritual life. One such application could be stated: Epiphany to us and through us.

Christ shows Himself to each and every one of us. He approaches us in His word and sacrament. Every time we read the gospel or any other book of the New Testament we stand before the great Teacher and listen to His word. He tells us all about Himself and His particular life-style. He tells us all about his Father and the divine plans of salvation. As we continue reading, meditating, and reflecting on His gospel we come to know Him better and to be inspired by Him more and more.

Christ manifests Himself in the sacraments, especially reconciliation and the Eucharist. When we celebrate the sacrament of reconciliation, we encounter the divine Physician. It is the same great Healer Who made the blind see, the deaf hear, the mute talk, and the lame walk. It is the same One who said to the paralytic, "Your sins are forgiven," and to the good thief, "Today you will be with Me in paradise."

The most glorious manifestation of Christ to us takes place at the moment of Communion. He comes into our hearts, and we can rest on His bosom as did the disciple whom Jesus loved.

In all these manifestations of Christ in word and sacrament the important thing is that we have the proper attitude, that we sit at the feet of the great Teacher as Mary, the sister of Martha and Lazarus did, that we approach the divine Healer of souls as the prodigal son did, that we approach His sacred banquet with humble and pure hearts.

It is not enough to allow Christ to manifest Himself to us. We will also have to become a manifestation of Christ, an epiphany to others. Every Christian must make our Lord known to those who know Him not. Every Christian must help those whose acquaintance with Christ is casual and superficial to deepen their knowledge and understanding of Him. Every Christian must take those by the hand who are distant from Christ and lead them closer to Him. Thus we will become mirrors in which others can see Christ and come to like what they see. Our works thus become an epiphany of Christ.

An epiphany of Christ more effective than our words would be our deeds, our whole life-style. "Let your light shine before men," says the Lord in the Sermon on the Mount. As the star attracted the attention of the wise men of the East and led them to Bethlehem, so could the light of our Christian way of life call the attention of people to Christ and lead them to Him.

This was the intention of Blessed John XXIII when he called the Second Vatican Council. The Church must reform herself and shine as a city built on a mountaintop. All who would see the beauty of this city would be attracted to it. This was the dream of Pope John XXIII. Let it be our dream motivating our spiritual growth and development.

Let our whole life be an epiphany of Christ to us and to others through us.

God bless you,

You can find the "Blessing of the Home and Household on Epiphany" on the US Catholic Bishops website at: <http://www.usccb.org/prayer-and-worship/sacraments-and-sacramentals/sacramentals-blessings/objects/blessing-of-the-home-and-household-on-epiphany.cfm> or <http://tinyurl.com/zpkx6lb>.

Once again the people of Corpus Christi opened their hearts and made Christmas possible for many in our sister parish Visitation BVM and the SSJ Welcome Center. Seven hundred gifts were delivered to the Visitation School and REC Program. Over seven thousand dollars in gift cards were sent to the Welcome Center. Thank you for your on going generosity. Thank you to Club 50 and the Youth Group for their help in preparing the tags for the trees. A very special thanks to the volunteers who went above and beyond this year to make this project a success. God bless you all.

First Reading: Isaiah 60:1-6 Jerusalem is extolled as a place of glory and splendor because the Lord has come to His own city.

Responsorial Psalm: PS 72:1-2, 7-8, 10-11, 12-13
R. (cf. 11) Lord, every nation on earth will adore You.

Second Reading: Ephesians 3:2-3a, 5-6 Paul tells the Ephesians that his special mission is to make the Gentiles co-heirs with the Jews in Christ — “members of the same body and sharers of the promise.”

Gospel: Matthew 2:1-12 Herod learns that Wise Men from the East are searching for the newly born Christ Child. He instructs them to find the Child and to report His whereabouts to him. The Wise Men follow a star to the place where Mary and Jesus are and offer the Child gold, frankincense, and myrrh. They do not return to Herod but follow another route to their own country.

HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

“I am sure you have heard of the ministry God in His goodness gave me in your regard. God’s secret plan, as I have briefly described it, was revealed to me, unknown to men in former ages but now revealed by the Spirit to the holy apostles and prophets. It is no less than this: in Christ Jesus the Gentiles are co-heirs with the Jews, members of the same body, and sharers in the promise through the preaching of the gospel.”

While we recall the visit of the Magi, detailing facts of a star, gifts and a hateful king, the real meaning for us is given by St. Paul. We learn three things today, we are: 1) co-heirs, 2) members, 3) sharers.

An heir receives a benefit, members gain the status of belonging and sharers enjoy a common life. This details who and what we are as ‘missionary disciples.’

It was not always so. The visitors from the orient represent all who believe and follow today. Jesus is the Savior of the world, of Christians, Jews, Muslims, all humankind. With reverence they brought gifts, symbolic yet real. We bring the gift of self, offering our gratitude for His coming, our desire to follow Him more closely. Like the Magi, we go to our streets and neighborhood, our barrio and homes, willing to bring our experience of Christ’s presence to others.

Did you discover the Christ this Christmas?
Be the star to reveal Him to others.

CREATED, LOVED, REDEEMED BY GOD -- PRICELESS

MARCH FOR LIFE 2016 – 44th Anniversary

PLEASE READ: This may be the last bus trip to the March for Life from Corpus Christi unless someone comes forward to lead next year! Ellie Hentschel and I (Louise Mercurio) have run this trip for many years and we are now stepping down. If you are interested, please call Louise Mercurio at 610-584-4008.

The 44th Annual March for Life will be held on Friday, January 27, 2017 in Washington, DC. Corpus Christi Parish will send one (1) bus to Washington to attend this peaceful and prayerful demonstration bearing witness to the dignity of human life from conception to natural death. This trip is sponsored jointly by the Respect Life Group & the Knights of Columbus Council #9715. NEW schedule for the day is as follows:

Come prepared for the day and attend 6:30 am Mass at Corpus Christi Parish, then board the bus at the RE side of Church and we will leave the CC parking lot at 7:15AM promptly.

One restroom stop on I95. Continue on to Washington where bus driver will drop us off as close to the beginning of the March as possible (near 7th and Constitution Ave.). March begins about 1PM and we will join in and walk up Constitution (about 1 mile) toward the Capital and continue on to the Supreme Court where we pray for the end of legalized abortion (Roe vs. Wade). We then regroup at the corner and when we have all our people together, we walk to Union Station, where our bus will pick us up (4PM). We leave Washington, and stop on I95 at the Maryland House, which has been newly renovated, has plenty of seating room, and everyone will purchase their dinner from the various food places. (Old Country Buffet has closed.) We will not go to the Shrine and we will not take the Metro train. Cost for adults is $24 for bus. Cost for students is 0, bus is free for all students BUT an adult must accompany them. Everyone should bring a bag lunch and a drink. Bus returns to Corpus Christi by 9 PM. Sign-ups start now. ## AROUND THE ARCHDIOCESE of PHILADELPHIA

All are welcome to attend the next GIFT (Growing In Faith Together) presentation at Saint Stanislaus: Helping our Youth and Young Adults to Embrace the Catholic Faith on Tuesday, January 10 at 7 pm in the Parish Center, the building located behind the Church at 51 Lansdale Avenue (corner of Lansdale and Main Streets [Route 63]) in Lansdale. Today's young people are part of a generation in crisis – of identity, of purpose, and of belief. FOCUS is a Catholic collegiate outreach whose mission is to share the hope and joy of the Gospel with students on college campuses. FOCUS missionaries invite young people into a relationship with Jesus Christ and the Catholic Church, accompanying them as they pursue lives that strive for virtue and excellence. This work is especially critical in today's culture that is increasingly secularized and de-Christianized, especially to young people who are falling away from the practice of their faith at an alarming rate. Come and see how FOCUS is having success in reaching out to young adults and bringing them back to the practice of the Catholic faith. Our presenter is Tim Gillen, a St. Stanislaus parishioner and FOCUS Missionary. There is no fee to attend, and registration is not required.

Joseph's People

Work of Christmas Begins

When the song of the angels is stilled,
when the star in the sky is gone,
when the kings and princes are home,
when the shepherds are back with the flocks,
then the work of Christmas begins:

to find the lost,
to heal those broken in spirit,
to feed the hungry,
to release the oppressed,
to rebuild the nations,
to bring peace among all peoples,
to make a little music with the heart...

And to radiate the Light of Christ, every day,
in every way, in all that we do and in all that we say.
Then the work of Christmas begins.

Each day St. John's provides between 500 and 700 meals to the homeless. Won't you help with this project by taking a pan and filling it with a recipe of your choice? The recipe should have a meat, poultry, or fish base. Please use only the pans that are provided by St John's and are available on the tables with the burgundy covers in the narthex of the church. They are also available in the gray garage next to the freezers. Do not overfill the pans. Please bring your solidly frozen casseroles to the three-bay gray garage near the convent by Wednesday, January 11th. The truck has been arriving very early on the second Thursday. If you have any questions about this project, please call Kay Smerke, (215) 855-1783.

MONTHLY FOOD COLLECTION

The monthly food collection for local food cupboards takes place this weekend, January 7/8, after all the Masses. Please leave your donations of non-perishable goods in the room next to the restrooms in the back of church. This room is open after all the Masses.

SUPPORT OUR PARISH

Moyer Indoor/Outdoor Services has an incentive program. This program makes a contribution to churches based on the amount of fuel oil purchased by parishioners for as long as they remain a customer. So, if you're currently a customer of Moyer Indoor Outdoor Services, now is the time to call and be included in this program. For details, call June Baker at 215-799-2000 ext 3102.

The Brother House, a work of the Legion of Mary, works with homeless men in the Norristown area on Wednesday and Sunday evenings. About 30 men take showers and need clean clothes after their shower. We need your donation of the following items: T-shirts, white athletic socks, underwear, and work pants. Clothing does not have to be new, just clean. These items are needed all year round. Bring donations to the Church and leave them in the Church Ministry Room next to the restrooms. We pray daily for our benefactors. God bless your generosity!!

CORPORATE MATCHING GIFTS FOR SCHOOL

Many companies have a Matching Gift program that is available for schools. If you've thought about making a donation to Corpus Christi School, and are employed at one of these companies, obtaining a form from the Human Resources Department could add on to your personal gift and would be a great way to support our school. Ask your employer if they have a Matching Gift or similar type program for schools.

All students who had computer lab learned the basics of computer science through age appropriate tutorials provided in Mrs. Jeyasingh's website. Students learned to write a list of steps to solve a problem and debug their code if there is a bug in their program. All classes who missed an hour of code were given an opportunity to participate by the end of December.
