PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners,

To stop, look and listen is important advice. This is true, not only when crossing a street, but also when contemplating our salvation. This fourth Sunday of Lent is called Laetare Sunday. It is an opportune time to stop and think about Jesus, to look at our relationship with Him, and listen to God's voice in our own life. Jesus is God's appointed one, the Son of Man, sent for our salvation. We must integrate that reality into our daily lives.

Today's Scripture readings center on recognizing God's chosen One. At times, our lives depend heavily on our ability to recognize the meaning of the signs and directions all around us. We often neglect to take the time to look around in order to do this. In our technological age we can recognize others through photos, identification cards, television, and of course, by personal knowledge. Most all of these means are fairly recent in the scope of history. In biblical times people relied upon eyewitness testimony and personal knowledge to identify someone.

Today we hear from the first Book of Samuel that God commanded Samuel to anoint the king. However, first Samuel must recognize whom God has chosen. Samuel obeys God and goes to Jesse in Bethlehem to search for this king. He thought he knew who the chosen one was, but it was another. Continuing to listen to God, Samuel eventually recognizes David as the one whom God has chosen to be king.

In the second reading Saint Paul teaches about the identity of Jesus. Paul recognizes Jesus as the "light," an insight from Paul's personal experience of Jesus on the road to Damascus. It was there, when blinded by the light of Christ, that Paul experienced a profound conversion which led to his discipleship. Paul's admonition to us is to awaken from the darkness of sin, give up evil, and let the light of Christ shine in our lives. Stop and think about it. Is the light of Christ obscured in your own life? Look into your heart and see if there exists any bitterness toward anyone. Listen to the Holy Spirit who guides us in following God's way so that we can become children of the light.

The Gospel account of the man born blind also teaches us about recognizing Jesus, the Son of Man, and recognizing sin in our lives. In the time of Jesus, disease and affliction were often equated with punishment for sin. Often a child's affliction was seen as the result of a parent's sin. In today's reading, however, the blind man is able to recognize that Jesus is the Son of Man, the Savior and Messiah, whereas the Pharisees could see but did not recognize Jesus as the Son of God. The Pharisees were intelligent people steeped in the Jewish tradition of awaiting the Messiah, yet they failed to recognize him in Jesus.

This brings us to ask ourselves, can we recognize Jesus? Jesus reminds us to look for Him in those who are hungry, poor, in prison, naked, homeless, ill or thirsty. In Matthew's Gospel we are told that whatever we do for the least among us we do for Jesus. Have we met some of these people and yet been unable to recognize Jesus?

In the Gospel reading, Jesus was recognized by the man considered to be a sinner. There is a connection between our ability to recognize our sin and our ability to recognize our Savior. During the remaining days of Lent take the time to stop, look and listen for Jesus. When we stop, look, and admit the sin in our lives we, too, can hear the words of Jesus and be able to recognize Him as our Savior.

God bless you,

Msgr. Tom Flanagan

LENTEN PRAYER FOR THE FALLEN AWAY:

Dear Lord, may our hearts and minds be nourished by your unyielding mercy and unconditional love, may our actions and words be guided by your ever present grace. We ask the Holy Spirit to fan the fire of our love to give us strength, wisdom and courage in proclaiming your truth to those we encounter. During this Holy Season of Lent we especially pray for (insert names) and That all who seek to know you: encounter you. That all who seek to serve you: be welcomed in your vineyard. That all who seek to love you: feel that they are loved. That all who seek to return to their Catholic faith: find they will be welcomed and received. Amen

First Reading: 1 Samuel 16:1b, 6-7, 10-13a In seeking a King for the Israelites, Samuel traveled to Jesse of Bethlehem, who had seven sons. Commanded by God to ignore the elder sons, Samuel anointed the youngest, David.

Responsorial : PS 23: 1-3A, 3B-4, 5, 6

R. (1) The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Second Reading: Ephesians 5:8-14 Paul exhorts the Ephesians to live as "children of light" in goodness and truth and to avoid evil deeds "done in darkness."

Gospel: John 9:1-41 Jesus performs the miracle of giving sight to the man born blind. Because Jesus performed this miracle on the Sabbath, the Pharisees called Him a "sinner," but the blind man said, "He is a prophet." Jesus later reveals to the blind man that He is the Son of Man.

HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

"There was a time when you were in darkness but now you are light in the Lord. Well, then, live as children of light. Light produces every kind of goodness, and justice and truth.... Then he told him, 'Go wash in the pool of Siloam.' (This name means 'One who has been sent.')"

With the coming of spring, days become longer and darkness fades. St. Paul tells his readers that they are children of the light. Jesus told us we are the light of the world. We recognize our role through our good works, our efforts to make a just society, and walking with Jesus who is the way, truth and life.

How common it is for us to look for a place to charge our telephones, renew the power in our ipad, or charge our battery. Sadly people fight to plug their charger and renew their telephone, computer or game. Lent is to produce the same effect. The light can become stronger as we strive for goodness, justice and truth. Lent is meant to restore power, or grace, fully. Lent is our opportunity to be and remain connected. We are to be charged by the Lord and radiate His presence.

Marie received the District's Award of Merit, which recognizes Scout leaders "who render service of an outstanding nature at the district level."

Mrs. DiNunzio was recognized for service both in and outside Scouting – her citation recognized not only her work with the General Nash District, the North Penn International Festival, Girl Scouts, several local Boy Scout units and her sons, but also her service as an REC instructor and cantor at Corpus Christi Parish.
