PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners,

It is common in our Western culture to pursue the so-called “good life”. Being a participant in the “good life” means economic success, a secure job, the ability to have all possible creature comforts in this world, and to be worry free. Society dubs that situation the “good life”. Today, on the Fourth Sunday of Easter, Jesus invites us to celebrate the full life. The “full life” has a distinctly different set of concerns from the “good life”.

Jesus always sees the cross of Good Friday in the same vision with the glory of Easter Sunday. In this vision we find the full life. The “good life” is loaded with ease and comfort. The “full life” is a call to risk, challenge, endurance, obedience, and fulfillment. These two approaches to life are different indeed.

In today’s second reading, from the first letter of Peter, we find nourishment in God’s word for excelling in the pursuit of the “full life”. If you suffer for doing what is right, this is acceptable in God’s eyes. It was for this that you were called, since Christ suffered for you in just this way and left you an example, so you can follow in His footsteps. In these words we find the substance of the “full life”. The risen Jesus calls us to eliminate injustice, to cure disease, to do away with hunger, to make the poor wealthy, and to overcome fear in the dark valley with God’s love. The “full life” is loaded with challenge and risk. The “full life” calls us to care for the entire flock, while the “good life” offers us only the care of oneself.

The Resurrection of Jesus is a community event. In this event we were given the “full life” as Peter proclaims: “By His wounds, you were healed” – healed especially from the sins of the “good life,” and liberated from our selfishness into living the “full life” for the good of all.

This “full life” really consists in our development of intimacy with Jesus Christ. We become the body of Christ, as Paul calls us. Jesus bore our sins to the victory of the cross, because of His intense union with each of us – His call to the “full life”. Jesus is the gate to the pasture of “life to the full”.

God bless you,

MOTHER'S DAY ROSE SALE

The Blessed Virgin Mary came to us in Fatima, Portugal May 13th to October 13th, 1917

To Honor Our Lady of Fatima’s appearances 100 years ago, we will be praying the Holy Rosary after all masses in the month of May. We will meet in the chapel immediately following every mass.

“The Most Holy Virgin in these last times in which we live has given a new efficacy to the recitation of the Rosary to such an extent that there is no problem, no matter how difficult it is, whether temporal or above all spiritual, in the personal life of each one of us, of our families...that cannot be solved by the Rosary. There is no problem, I tell you, no matter how difficult it is, that we cannot resolve by the prayer of the Holy Rosary.”
~Sister Lucia dos Santos, Fatima seer

First Reading: Acts 2:14a, 36-41 With great authority, Peter proclaims to the people that the Christ who was crucified is indeed the Messiah. Urging them to reform and be baptized in the name of Christ, three thousand responded to his words and were baptized.

Responsorial : PS 23: 1-3A, 3B4, 5, 6

R. (1) The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Second Reading: 1 Peter 2:20b-25

This is a strong exhortation from Peter to the people to endure suffering for Christ as He did for them. Healed by His wounds, they have "returned to the shepherd."

Gospel: John 10:1-10 Christ uses the beautiful image of the shepherd to describe His care for His sheep. He also says He is the sheepgate and promises that "Whoever enters through Me will be safe."

HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

"Beloved: If you are patient when you suffer for doing what is good, this is a grace before God. For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example that you should follow in His footsteps. When He was insulted, He returned no insult, when He suffered He did not threaten, instead He handed himself over to the one who judges justly. He himself bore our sins in His body on the cross, so that free from sin, we might live for righteousness"

Risen Lord, to unite themselves to Jesus and His cross. We move a few weeks from Easter and can forget that the cross of Christ is the measure of the world.

How do I react to adversity? Revenge, road rage, doing unto others before they do unto me... it is easy to avoid the admonition of Peter. To be sure I'm on the right path I look to the virtues found in the beatitudes - meekness, humility, desire for holiness, dependence upon God, and yes even the suffering I endure. Together with the virtues which Paul offered the Galatians, I become fully equipped to move forward.
