Upper Gwynedd, Pennsylvania

Celebrating our Fiftieth Year of Faith, Family and Friendship

The chalice and host represent Corpus Christi, the Eucharist Body of Christ. The colorful hands that joyfully radiate from the host, symbolize the diverse and distinct groups of people that make up Corpus Christi Community, all of whom are bound by Faith, Family, and Friendship.

MISSION STATEMENT FOR THE PARISH of CORPUS CHRISTI

We, the people of Corpus Christi, are blessed to be called the "Body of Christ". May we always strive to fulfill His teaching in how we live our lives. We envision our Parish Mission as promoting and improving the community of God by proclaiming the Good News through:

- ✦ participating actively in the liturgy and sacraments;
- ✦ living the Gospel message and practicing conversion in our daily lives;
- ✦ welcoming and nourishing new and inactive members, as well as educating all groups;
- ✦ practicing respect for all life: the unborn, youth, aged, sick, disabled, poor and needy;
- ✦ evangelizing and promoting social justice and harmony among all peoples.

May God bless us and be with us as we go forth to fulfill our Parish Mission.

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners,

We are in a season of mystery, celebrating in faith the mighty works of God in our lives. Who is not moved in some way by the words of today's gospel? Yet who can fully understand this gospel? God's glory is felt in the heart, not comprehended with the head. Like love and blessing, glory is a two-way word. God loves us; we love God. God blesses us; we bless God. God glorifies us in Christ; we glorify God in Christ. In loving God, we serve Him faithfully. In blessing God, we praise Him for His goodness. In glorifying God, we allow ourselves to rest in the Spirit of God and we allow the Spirit to rest on us, as today's second reading explains. The whole year is the season of God's love. Advent and Christmas are the seasons of God's blessing, given to us in the Christ Child. Easter and Pentecost are the seasons of God's glory, when we accept the Spirit of power into our lives and celebrate our call to give the Spirit to the world.

As we approach the feast of the founding of the Church in the outpouring of the Spirit of glory, we see today's gospel as a bridge between Easter and Pentecost. The prayer of Jesus that God would give Him glory for the salvation of the world was answered in the resurrection. His prayer that He might bestow eternal life on His disciples was fulfilled in the descent of the Holy Spirit, who comes upon every new generation of Christians in the sacraments of Baptism and Confirmation. We are privileged to share in the glory of God by continuing the work of Jesus in the world until He comes again.

"I have given You glory on earth by finishing the work You gave Me to do." In this simple sentence, Jesus sums up the whole purpose of His life's work. He had only one goal in life, to give glory to God. He achieved His goal by sticking to one task and doing it to the best of His ability, the task of doing the work which the Father gave Him to do. Jesus did not presume to devise elaborate plans for meeting His goal in life. If He had one secret of success, it was that He found the mark of the Creator in the ordinary people, events, and situations of day-to-day living. Jesus gave glory to God on earth by evoking God's glory from the earth.

We Christians have always been aware of our duty to love God and our neighbor. We are also accustomed to blessing God for His goodness and to blessing our neighbors by praying that God may bless them. How do we rate in giving glory to God? We have a few fixed occasions of prayer when we are reminded of our obligation to glorify God, such as when we pray the Gloria at Mass. Do we know how to glorify God in our actions? What about glorifying our neighbor? In colloquial usage, this sounds like making someone out to be greater than they are, almost deifying them. However, the concept also has a Christian meaning. We glorify someone in the eyes of God when we do something which enables them to radiate the glory of God to us. We, who possess the Spirit of Glory, can and should, give the Spirit to others by speaking and acting in a Christian manner. God's glory is contagious. Those who possess the Spirit cannot help but share it with others. In this way, not only is God glorified in His creation, but all creation is glorified in God.

Today's second reading reminds us that the moment of our greatest glory in Christ is often the time when we feel most deeply the pain, rather than the joy, of being followers of Christ. It is precisely because they propel us into the life of glory that these difficult moments become opportunities for deepening our faith, hope, and love. The Spirit of glory sustains us in the time of trial and enables us to surmount every obstacle for the sake of the gospel.

The glory of God is all around us, ever present to our touch, ever hidden from our sight. We reveal God's glory by using the things of this world in ways which enhance our human condition, especially the lives of the poor and oppressed among us. When we search out the hidden potential for goodness in a person burdened by poverty or handicap, when we uncover the unsuspected peaceful use of wartime inventions, when we look for ways to humanize our dehumanized institutions, to melt their hearts of stone and give them hearts of flesh, when we do any good activity, we reveal the glory of God in ourselves and in the world around us. God has given His glory to us so that we may live for Him. If we do nothing else in life except seek out His glory and give it back to Him in action and in prayer, we will find at the end of our journey that we have built up from the many ordinary things of our lives an offering pleasing to the Lord, an acceptable sacrifice of praise.

God bless you,

First Reading: Acts 1:12-14 After Jesus ascended into heaven, the eleven apostles returned to Jerusalem and prayed in the upstairs room. With them were some women and Mary, the mother of Jesus.

Responsorial Psalm 27:1,4,7-8 The Lord is our salvation.

Second Reading: 1 Peter 4:13-16 Christians are exhorted to rejoice in suffering because through suffering, they share in the life of Christ.

Gospel: John 17:1-11a This is a continuation of Jesus' prayer at the Last Supper. He tells the Father that He has made His name known, that He has finished the work His Father has given Him, and that He wishes now to share in the glory at His side.

"After Jesus had been taken up to heaven the apostles returned to Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a Sabbath day's journey away. When they entered the city they went to the upper room where they were staying... All these devoted themselves with one accord to prayer, together with some women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and his brothers... 'I pray for them...'"

The named apostles had quite an experience. They were warned of the passion, some fled the scene, the paschal mystery with the crucifixion occurred, and then they met the Risen Lord. Now what?

Obedient to the command they returned to the cenacle and were united in prayer. Once again, a time to wait. How long? In a few days, the Pentecost event and new life for all.

How beautiful we find St. Luke telling us that Mary was gathered in prayer with them. Given into John's care at Calvary, we find our blessed Mother, who conceived by the Holy Spirit, waiting with the apostles for this promised gift. How did she feel? The loving mother. What did she know? Perhaps she reassured the apostles. The woman of silence who gave birth to the Savior, as mother of the church is waiting to give it new life.

When Jesus prayed for them in His priestly prayer, He included we who would believe. May we join too with the apostles, Mary and the entire church, asking that His Spirit may animate and motivate us as we prepare for Pentecost.

Movie in the Morning

Kateri Tekakwitha recently became the first Native American woman to be recognized as a saint (October 21, 2012). This moving documentary recounts the incredible journey of Saint Kateri's deep faith, heroic sacrifice, and love of Christ and reminds us that no one is too simple, too young, too ill, or too weak to follow Christ. This film features many people who have been spiritually touched by her, including our own Archbishop Charles Chaput. Refreshments will be served along with this "movie in the morning".

50th ANNIVERSARY CONCERT

The select choral ensembles of North Penn High School will present a culminating concert the afternoon of JUNE 1 at 3:00 PM. The Men's Choir, Women's Choir and Chamber Singers will perform highlights of this year's repertoire, including both sacred and secular works. All three groups are chosen by audition and perform challenging works from all periods of music history. The ensembles are under the direction of Corpus Christi's Director of Music Ministries, Matthew Klenk, and are accompanied by Corpus Christi organist, Sean Burns. Admission is free.

MONTHLY FOOD COLLECTION

The monthly food collection for local food cupboards takes place next weekend, June 7th and 8th, after all the Masses. Please leave your donations of non-perishable goods in the room next to the restrooms in the back of church. This room is open after all the Masses.

The Bereavement Ministry of Corpus Christi believes in supporting family and friends who have lost a loved one. As part of our care and support, we offer Bereavement Sessions on the first Wednesday of the month in the Parish House. Please feel free to join us and there is never any pressure to share. Our last session for the season will be on Wednesday, June 4th from 6:30 - 8:30PM. New bereavement sessions will begin in September. For registration please contact either Eileen McCullough, emccullough@gmail.com, 215-361-0978 or Eleanor Rinedoller, momdoller99@verizon.net at 215-699-1858. Registration is preferred, but all are welcome!

The National Catholic Bible Conference is Returning to the Archdiocese of Philadelphia!

Have you ever wondered how to make sense of the Bible? Do you wish you could sit down with the Scriptures and hear the voice of God speaking to your heart? Do you want to learn an authentically Catholic approach to reading the Bible and sharing its wisdom with others? If so, there is a conference for you ...On June 27 and 28, the National Catholic Bible Conference will return to the Shrine of Our Lady of Czestochowa in Doylestown, Pennsylvania. The theme of this year's event is "Scripture: The Heart of the Father." This event will fuel the fire for God in your heart, as you come to know him more intimately through his Word. At the conference, you will have the unique opportunity to glean insight and encouragement from gifted Catholic speakers and biblical scholars, including Scott Hahn, Jeff Cavins, and Mark Hart. Registrations are currently being taken. For more information on the conference and to register, please visit www.CatholicBibleConference.com or call 1-888-842-2853. (Please note if Corpus Christi parish is indicated on the registration and if we have the most attendees, we could win a free Jeff Cavins Seminar!)
