MISSION STATEMENT for the PARISH of CORPUS CHRISTI

We, the people of Corpus Christi, are blessed to be called the "Body of Christ". May we always strive to fulfill His teaching in how we live our lives. We envision our Parish Mission as promoting and improving the community of God by proclaiming the Good News through:

- participating actively in the liturgy and sacraments;
- living the Gospel message and practicing conversion in our daily lives;
- welcoming and nourishing new and inactive members, as well as educating all groups;
- practicing respect for all life: the unborn, youth, aged, sick, disabled, poor and needy;
- evangelizing and promoting social justice and harmony among all peoples.

May God bless us and be with us as we go forth to fulfill our Parish Mission.

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners,

Today we celebrate the Feast of Corpus Christi, of the Body of Christ, of the Holy Eucharist - the Sacrament of Sacraments. Today the Church in the liturgy asks us to reflect on, to find joy in, to give thanks for our Lord's greatest gift, the gift of Himself as our companion all through life, our food on our pilgrim journey to eternity, our sacrificial gift to the Father in heaven.

Today we need to give thanks that, through God's mercy, we have been enabled to follow the apostles, rather than those who turned away from Jesus. Today let us give thanks for the sacrament our Lord instituted: (1) to continue for all time His sacrifice on Calvary, offered once for the forgiveness of our sins; (2) to give us the food that would nourish and sustain us on our journey to the promised land of heaven; (3) to prove, for all time, the divine-human friendship God offers us even here on earth, the love and friendship first revealed at Bethlehem. Jesus did not have to institute the sacrifice of the Mass. He could have continued to intercede for us only in heaven. But He wanted to be physically present to us here on earth, petitioning the Father. He did so that we could join with Him in praising, thanking, petitioning the Father. He did so that we could say, as we do in the third Eucharistic Prayer: "See (here on the altar) the Victim whose death has reconciled us to Yourself."

Jesus could have sent down from heaven torrents of the actual graces He merited on Calvary, to support and strengthen us on our journey of life. But He wanted to do more giving, not only those graces, but His very self as our food in the Eucharist.

He could have been content with the intimate relationship, the Holy Trinity's true indwelling within us that sanctifying grace brings about, but He wanted us to have, in addition, His living, abiding presence in our tabernacle, and in all throughout the world.

Today, as we give thanks for the Mass, for Holy Communion, for the Blessed Sacrament, we need to ask ourselves some probing questions. As we participate in the Mass, do we forget the essential act of self-offering? Have our frequent receptions of Holy Communion made our recent receptions routine, lessened the reverence with which we should receive the Eucharist? Do we spend time speaking and listening to the Lord immediately after receiving Eucharist, or do we rush out of Church with little or no thought of the Sacrament we have just received?

Today, we need to give thanks once again for this wonderful gift of Eucharist, resolve to receive it more fervently, and live it in our lives.

God bless you,

FEAST OF CORPUS CHRISTI ~ Annual Procession

First Reading: Genesis 14:18-20 Melchizedek, a priest of God, prayed that Abram would be blessed by God. He also praised God for delivering Abram's foes into his hands.

Responsorial Psalm: 110:1-4 You are a priest forever, in the line of Melchizedek.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 11:23-26 Paul describes Jesus' actions during the last supper. Jesus broke bread and said it was His body given for us, asking that we do the same in remembrance of Him. He then passed the cup and called it His blood. Jesus then asked us to break bread in this manner to remember His death until He returns.

Gospel: Luke 9:11b-17 Jesus spoke to a large crowd when His disciples asked that He dismiss the people to give them a chance to find food and lodging. Jesus asked the disciples to give the crowd something to eat, but they had only five loaves of bread and two fish. Jesus then blessed and distributed the food, which fed about 5,000 people. Twelve baskets were then collected from what was left over.

Family Connection

In our age of fast food and eating on the go, families often find that they are not eating meals together at a dinner table. As a family, look back over the past week and recall how many meals were eaten together and how many meals were eaten alone or on the run.

In the Bible, meals are seen as much more than a means to satisfy a physical need. The Hebrew people viewed eating a meal as a way of expressing and strengthening their relationship to one another under God's covenant. It is no coincidence that meals are often the setting of Jesus' teaching and miracles in the Gospels. In this Sunday's Gospel, we hear the story of Jesus feeding the crowd of 5,000 people.

Read this Sunday's Gospel, Luke 9:11b-17. Talk about the kinds of hungers that people have in addition to physical hunger. Describe the hungers that a family nourishes (love, compassion, forgiveness, laughter, and so on). Together give thanks for the food that Jesus gives us that we celebrate on this Sunday's feast of the Body and Blood of Jesus. Make a commitment to share in this Eucharistic meal together as a family.

Anima Christi

SOUL of Christ, sanctify me.

Body of Christ, save me.

Blood of Christ, inebriate me.

Water from the side of Christ, wash me.

Passion of Christ, strengthen me.

O good Jesus, hear me.

Within Thy wounds, hide me.

Separated from Thee let me never be.

From the malignant enemy, defend me.

At the hour of death, call me.

To come to Thee, bid me,

That I may praise Thee in the company

Of Thy Saints, for all eternity.

Amen.
