PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners,

We come to know people by spending more time with them. We discover their virtues and shortcomings. They may even share with us their dreams and ambitions. We learn how they respond to others and the happenings in their lives. As their true identities are revealed, we can decide how close a relationship we desire to develop with them.

Both the Bible and Sacred Tradition reveal to us a story of mankind which has been in a constant interaction with God. Our God is a God of self-revelation Who seeks to be known and embraced by His people. From the Book of Genesis to the book of Revelation, to the loving tradition of the early Church, God is constantly revealing Himself to us as a Trinity of Persons, One God.

Today's feast of the Holy Trinity is a celebration of this core belief of the Christian faith. Even though the mystery of One God, three Persons, is beyond our comprehension, acceptance of God as Trinity is not beyond our grasp. Our experience of the Holy Trinity, as recorded in the Bible and known for the past 2000 years, reveals the presence and qualities of God interacting in the life of humanity.

Today's reading from the Book of Exodus tells of an encounter with God by Moses. As God comes to Moses, He reveals Himself as a God of mercy and kindness. God not only freed the people of Israel from slavery in Egypt, He continues to forgive them for their sins and infidelities.

Saint Paul calls us to know the "God of love and peace". As Christians we are to follow the example of love, peace, and unity which is revealed in the Trinity. Paul seals his call to live in harmony with the essence of God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

In our Gospel, Jesus teaches Nicodemus about the magnitude of God's love. The depth of the Father's love lies within the presence of the Son. So great is the Father's love that He sent the Son to save the world. By knowing Jesus, we can come to know God the Father. Therefore, faith in Jesus becomes essential in knowing God. The call to faith in Jesus is a call to know God. To accept the call to know Jesus is to accept God. To reject the call to know Jesus is to reject knowing God.

Saint Paul in his first letter to the Corinthians says, "No one can say 'Jesus is Lord' except by the Holy Spirit." The Holy Spirit, the third person of the Blessed Trinity is present with the Father and the Son from eternity. It is the Holy Spirit that awakens faith in us. The Holy Spirit moves the human soul to look for and to seek to know God. The Holy Spirit draws all of creation back to the Creator.

Therefore, what kind of response can we make to the revelation of God in our lives? First we must respond with faith to God's self-revelation. We must believe in the life and existence of God as Trinity. Secondly, we must respond in thanksgiving, especially in our great prayer of thanksgiving, the Eucharist. How blessed we are to possess the history of the revelation of God and to know the salvation won for us by Christ and also to have the abiding presence of the Spirit.

Finally, we respond by following His commands. We look to Jesus to show us what it means to be faithful to God. When asked what Commandment was the greatest, Jesus was clear and succinct: Love God above all and love neighbor and self the same. This is our response to this great gift of love. We reach out and embrace our God Who constantly reaches out to us.

God bless you,

Today, our Nation honors fathers with a day of recognition, and directs our attention to their most important role in family life: that of provider, protector, companion and loving guide. At Mass today, all fathers will be invited to stand and receive a special blessing as we celebrate this happy occasion. To all fathers and grandfathers; Godfathers and foster-fathers, we heartily extend best wishes for a Happy Father's Day!

We are invited also to remember those fathers who have died with a special prayer of remembrance, not only today but every day.

We congratulate all of our graduates: Kindergarten, Grade School, High School and College! May God bless you with His choicest blessings and may you walk in His ways all the days of your lives.

Envelopes mailed	2,650
Envelopes returned	844
Mortgage Reduction Collection
June to date	$ 3,205

First Reading: Exodus 34:4b-6, 8-9 The Lord appears to Moses on Mount Sinai and proclaims to him that the Lord is a "merciful God...slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelity."

Responsorial: DN 3:52, 53, 54, 55, 56 Glory and praise forever!

Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 13:11-13 Paul exhorts the Corinthians to live in peace and harmony, and for the first time, invokes the Blessed Trinity.

Gospel: John 3:16-18 In this beautiful passage, Jesus tells Nicodemus that God loved His people so much that He "gave His only son." Jesus reveals to Nicodemus that anyone who believes in Him will not die but will enjoy life with Him for all eternity.

"Having come down in a cloud, the Lord stood with Moses there and proclaimed his name, 'Lord.' Thus the Lord passed before him and cried out. 'The Lord, the Lord, a merciful and gracious God, slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelity.' Moses at once bowed down to the ground in worship. Then he said 'If I find favor with you, O Lord, do come along in our company.'"

The authors of Exodus writing so long ago, teach us today of the beautiful relationship Moses enjoyed with God. Even with so many difficulties and frustrations, Moses expressed total dependence on God who is described as merciful and kind, slow to anger and rich in kindness.

As I acknowledge these revealed attributes, it allows me to approach God with great confidence and assurance. I know He shows mercy to all, including myself. I know He is gracious as He welcomes me into His company and takes me under His wings. I know He does not get angry, even when I disappoint Him. I know He is faithful to His promises.

If I am truly convinced of this reality my prayer should begin as did that of the great lawgiver 'If I find favor with you O Lord, do come along in our company'. What a wonderful mantra as I pause to pray each day, for I believe He does find favor with me. 'Hail oh highly favored one...'

I too wish to enjoy such a relationship with my God.

We pray for the deceased members, relatives and friends of our parish family especially Alan Fesnak, husband of Linda; Patricia Shelton, wife of Carroll.

"Come to their aid, O saints of God; come forth to meet them, angels of the Lord, receiving their souls, presenting them to the Most High."

Gospel Today | The Most Holy Trinity | John 3:16-18

"For God so loved the world that He gave His one and only Son".

When we believe in Jesus, and live in His light, our spirits will enjoy eternal life.

©2014 Bon Venture Services, LLC

THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

It is hard for us to understand the Trinity - one God, with 3 parts.

St. Patrick used a bit of Ireland as a teaching tool. With a 3 leaf clover in hand, he explained it as one stem, our God with 3 leaves, the Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

- Color the clover green -

SWEET as HONEY

God loves His world. He lets the clover grow wild! Look for it growing in the grass...

Look, God is everywhere!

Yes Honey, God IS everywhere...

...and not only in this clover patch!
