PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners,

The most powerful prayer of the church is the redemptive suffering of Jesus Christ, and the most powerful prayers in the Church are those whose prayers and lives are made a part of the Suffering Servant, Jesus Christ our Savior.

Human suffering is not to be avoided, it is to be redeemed, to be transformed from a sign of sin and death into a sign of union with Christ. It is the way to higher human life freed from sin and death. Why? Because the thing that happens when human pain, loss, and suffering is sacramentalized is that those who suffer are thereby liberated from their humiliation, from their sense of being "useless," and their fear of being "a burden" and so we encounter the Risen Christ in the Sacrament of the Sick, that meeting with Christ in which the Church brings us encouragement, strength, and support.

The Church wants this sacramental action to bring dignity to all sick persons, replacing their humiliation with dignity, their sense of being "useless" with a sense of meaning and purpose. She comes in her priest to the bedside of the sick person to elicit a response, to give the suffering an ability to respond to our God who is not content to see us suffer so needlessly.

Whenever we are near people who are seriously ill, the Sacrament of the Sick should be administered. The anointed becomes "the person on the other side of the cross" and is joined with Christ on the cross in redemptive suffering for the sake of the Church. Many people are puzzled by this particular passage from Saint Paul's Letter to the Colossians (Col. 1:24-29). Perhaps what Saint Paul is telling us will not be so mysterious now. And perhaps we can give encouragement and happiness to those whom we love who are suffering. For God truly does love us.

God did not make death, or disease, suffering or loss. They are all, each one of them, affronts to His beauty and love. Nor is God content with our pain and suffering; and certainly they do not make Him happy. Pain and suffering are the result of our own sins, something that Jesus took onto Himself and entered into in order to liberate us that we might live in the glorious freedom as the redeemed children of God.

For what we hear from the Book of Wisdom today is really true when it says, "For God formed man to be imperishable; the image of His own nature He made him." And as Christians we rejoice that our nature, in Christ's sacrament, are joined into the human nature of Jesus Christ gloriously risen from the dead, victim no longer. To Him be glory, and honor, and praise, and thanksgiving, forever and ever, unto ages of ages.

God bless you,

The Parish Center Office will be closed on Friday the 3rd of July and reopen on Monday, July 6th.

Please also note that morning Mass on July 4th is at 9:00AM. Let us join together to thank and give praise to God for the gift of freedom that we currently have in our country.

2nd Corinthians

Second Reading: II Corinthians 8:7-9, 13-15 Paul exhorts the Corinthians to contribute to the poor of the Jerusalem church in accordance with their means. He explains that if people help each other, they will one day be helped when they are needy.

Gospel: Mark 5:21-43 "Do not be afraid, only have faith." Jesus' power over sickness and death requires absolute trust and absence of fear.

Family Connection

There are many ways in which we can compare the request for healing made by Jairus and the request of the woman with the hemorrhage. One comparison helps us think about prayer. Jairus asked Jesus for healing on his daughter's behalf; the woman with the hemorrhage had no one to speak for her and bravely approached Jesus on her own initiative. In our prayers, we do both. We intercede for others' needs, and we also courageously express our own needs to God. We find hope in Jesus' response to both of these people, who sought Him out in their hour of need. As you gather as a family, talk about some of the things you have prayed for this week. Notice that some of your prayers may have been for other people, and some of your prayers may have been for your own needs. In today's Gospel we find encouragement for both kinds of prayer. Read together today's Gospel, Mark 5:21-43. Talk about the similarities and differences between the two people who presented their needs to Jesus in this Gospel. Notice that both people received the healing they sought from Jesus. We want to pray for the needs of others and for our own needs with as much faith and hope as Jairus and the woman with the hemorrhage did. Pray together in thanks and praise to God, who hears our needs and answers them, by praying today's psalm, Psalm 30.

We pray for the deceased members, relatives and friends of our parish family, especially John Gillin, brother of Margaret (Peggy); John Graham, husband of Diane; Ann Bryers, mother of Joanne.

June: A Home for the Wounded Heart

Many people, especially today, face painful situations resulting from poverty, disability, illness and addictions, unemployment, and the loneliness of advanced age. But divorce and same-sex attraction impact the life of the family in different but powerful ways. Christian families and networks of families should be sources of mercy, safety, friendship, and support for those with these issues.

Did you know? The World Meeting of Families needs thousands of volunteers to help make this international event a wonderful experience for all. Volunteers are needed to serve as Guest Services Associates, Volunteer Captains, Digital Diplomats, Special Services Coordinators, and Language Service Associates. For more info visit: www.worldmeeting2015.org/get-involved/volunteer.

The Church Ministry Program for Lay Men and Women
The Church Ministry Institute (CMI) is offered at many locations throughout the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. Classes are one night per week in the fall and spring. This program offers lay adult Catholics: a unique opportunity to develop and deepen their personal relationship with Jesus Christ; a study program to expand their knowledge of the Catholic Faith (Bible, Catechism); a small-faith community style environment with faith sharing and fellowship in a classroom setting; and a formative program to help them prepare to pursue a more active, participatory role in the life of the Church. CMI is a small-faith community certificate program of prayer, faith sharing, faith formation, retreats, theological reflection, ministry projects, and ministry skills training. The CMI program is designed for adult learners to grow in the knowledge of their faith and deepen their skills and commitment to participation and leadership in the Church. The program assists the laity in responding to their baptismal call by recognizing and affirming their gifts and talents. The Program comprises: 6 semesters of courses, mentoring sessions, day and overnight retreats, ministry visits, a ministry project, and book sharing. For more information, contact Saint Charles Seminary School of Theological Studies at 610 -785-6287.

Paper recycling is a year round event for which the parish receives income. By continuing to use our bins for recycling, you're not only helping the environment, but you're also supporting your parish!

I can say that the most beautiful and natural expressions of joy which I have seen in my life were in poor people who had little to hold on to.

If you have not already done so, please contact the Safe Environment coordinator, Connie Langsdorf at the Parish Office, pick up the brochure, read it and sign an acknowledgment form for your Safe Environment file. This needs to be done as soon as possible, as the law was mandated by the state. If you have any questions, please contact Connie at 215-855-1311.

Dear Corpus Christi,

Thank you for the donations of the baby items such as the gift cards, clothing, diapers, wipes, blankets, crib sheets and bath towels to A Baby's Breath from March 10th. We appreciate your support. Your generosity helps provide mothers-to-be and their babies with a good start in their life together.

Our organization provides free pregnancy counseling, GED tutoring, prenatal classes, parenting classes, and assistance in setting goals for the mother's future. We also offer support in obtaining resources that will help her and her family. Using a positive re-enforcement system, a mother earns credits for attending any counseling sessions or classes. The credits can be used to obtain items such as diapers, clothes, crib, etc. this system encourages a mother to be more responsible for her life and the life of her unborn child. Local individuals, families, stores, and church organizations have donated all of the baby and maternity items available to the women. A Baby's Breath is a totally volunteer organization and no money is spent on salaries.

A Baby's Breath is a non-profit, tax-free 501© 3 organization. Our Tax identification number (EIN) is 23-3045525.

Sincerely, Laura Piekara, Volunteer ABB Collegeville

SCRIP CORNER

SCRIP OFFICE HOURS:

SUMMER HOURS ARE TUESDAYS ONLY – 9AM TO 12:30PM (WITH THE OPTION OF PICKING UP PREVIOUSLY PLACED ORDERS IN THE PARISH BUSINESS OFFICE EVERY WEEKDAY from 9-5)

This is fundraising that is 100% from the retailers, and it benefits both Corpus Christi AND your family personally if you participate in this program. Corpus Christi purchases gift cards from grocery stores, gas stations, restaurants, etc. at a discount, then shares that discount by way of tuition/REC credits at Corpus Christi or any other Catholic school (Pre-K, elementary, high school or college) with families that purchase these cards.

Even if your family does not need a tuition/REC credit, by using the SCRIP gift cards you can designate your credits for the Father Loughran Scholarship Fund and help out another family that does need help at this time, or you can designate a specific family yourself (a neighbor or friend who has children in school). These cards can be purchased as gifts to give, or for your own use for your everyday purchases. You will not be spending any more money than you do now!

If your children are not old enough for school yet, you can accumulate tuition/REC credits that can be saved in your account until the time you would need them. To see a complete list of retailers that are offered, please visit our website at www.ccslandsdale.org and click on the SCRIP button. If you have any questions or would like more information about this major fundraising program, you can reach Erin Miller at 215-362-0104 during office hours, or send an e-mail to cc.scrip@yahoo.com!
