PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners,

In today's gospel reading, Luke continues Jesus' "journey narrative." The narrative combines several journeys and incorporates several statements of Jesus, making the journey a symbolic one. In this way, the journey is not only Jesus' journey, but also ours through the mystery of His cross, death and resurrection.

Jesus actually went to Jerusalem, but for many of us who will never make an actual journey to Jerusalem, the journey takes on a symbolic meaning - the way by which we follow Jesus through death to new life, even here on earth.

Jerusalem is an actual geographical place where our faith rests on what really happened in the ministry of Jesus. But for many of us, followers of Jesus, it is much more than a geographical location. It becomes the way by which we follow Jesus as His disciples. We relive the great redemptive deeds of Jesus in the Holy City, even if we have never made the journey to Jerusalem.

It seems that Luke's "journey narrative" is trying to make us realize that it is our journey through life as well, so that the passion and death of Jesus becomes a living, transforming reality for us.

While on His journey to Jerusalem, the meaning of some of Jesus sayings were difficult to comprehend. He reprimanded His disciples against anger and revenge, and even though we can understand and accept this admonition, we quickly forget when hard times assail us. In His next statement to a prospective follower, (that is, to us) Jesus says that "...the Son of Man has nowhere to lay His head." And we sometimes wonder if we can understand and live this type of life. His third statement seems so cold and harsh. "Let the dead bury the dead; come away and proclaim the kingdom of God."

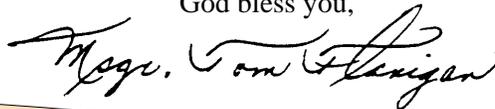

As Christians we keep our minds and hearts turned toward eternal life. We realize that ours is an apostolate of life; that our family extends to all throughout the world; that we do not labor over the mistakes of the past or its glories, but that we continue to strive and work for the coming of the kingdom of God.

St. Paul points out how we can make a good judgement by saying, "it was for liberty that Christ freed us." All law and external pressures are secondary to the realization that our lives flow primarily from the presence of Jesus, whose life, death and resurrection direct us to how we can deny ourselves in order to live more abundantly as God's new creation.

We "...have been called to live in freedom. ..." not the freedom of living according to our human weaknesses and selfishness, but in freedom to live the fulfillment of the whole law; that is, to love our neighbor as we love ourselves.

If we live according to the Spirit, we are guided by the Spirit. We will be able to act spontaneously and be assured that God is with us, and that we are doing His will. If we keep Christ ever before us, we will respond to every situation in peace and with good judgement. As His followers He will show us the path to life and give us fullness of joy in His presence.

God bless you,

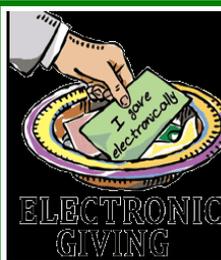

Help Wanted! We are looking for REC teachers! We are in need of grades 1,2,4 and 5 in the 4:30 session and grade 2 in the 6:45 session, please contact Trish Keen 215-362-2292.

The Parish Center Office will be closed on Monday the 4th of July and reopen on Tuesday, July 5th.

Please also note that morning Mass on July 4th is at 9:00AM. Let us join together to thank and give praise to God for the gift of freedom that we currently have in our country.

We now offer our parishioners Electronic Giving as a method of making regular monthly offerings to our church. The way this is done is that you would make your monthly offerings by way of direct payments (ACH debits) from your checking/savings account on the 20th of each month (unless on a weekend or holiday in which case it will be deducted on the next business day).

You will continue to receive envelopes which will include special second collections as well as Christmas and Easter. The weekly envelopes will allow you to mark that you have chosen the electronic method for your offerings to Corpus Christi.

If you are interested in Electronic Giving you can pick up a form on the ministry table in the narthex or stop by the Parish Center Office during business hours. You can also get a form on our website at:

First Reading: : Isaiah 66:10-14c Isaiah instructs the people of Jerusalem to rejoice, because God would restore her prosperity. The people will better understand God's power through their homeland's restoration.

Responsorial Psalm: PS 66:1-3, 4-5, 6-7, 16, 20
R. (1) Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

Second Reading: Galatians 6:14-18 Paul describes the sign of the cross of Jesus as all that is significant. Following the old laws is unimportant. Instead, being baptized in Christ and adhering to His ideals is what matters most.

Gospel: Luke 10:1-12,17-20 Jesus sent forth seventy-two disciples to preach His good news, telling them "the harvest is rich, but the workers few." He also gave them detailed instructions on how to act towards the people. Jesus then reminded them not to be happy because of their power over evil, but to rejoice in the salvation they would achieve.

HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

"At that time the Lord appointed seventy-two others whom He sent ahead of Him in pairs to every town and place He intended to visit. He said to them 'The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few, so ask the Master of the harvest to send out laborers for His harvest'... 'May I never boast except in the cross of Our Lord Jesus Christ.'"

A rich tradition as missionaries were taking leave for their travels to other lands, was the presentation of their mission cross. How often when missionaries visited parishes to preach a mission, they carried that cross with them, and with it, blessed the people.

It is not rare for us to observe on our streets young Mormons or Jehovah Witnesses, going in pairs to bring their message, stopping, conversing, knocking at doors. Jesus did the same when He sent the seventy-two.

Pope Francis has reminded us of our mission, to hit the road, dirty our feet, yes, and even be bruised as we become His laborers for His harvest. We are not to wait in church for others to join us in the gift of our faith, but we too are sent, apostles, to bring what has the greatest meaning in our life, the Person of Christ.

May we be cross bearers for the kingdom and His harvest.

*"Every family needs a father... We find in the Book of Proverbs (23:15-15), words that a father addresses to his own son, and it reads like this:
 'My son, if your heart is wise, my heart too will be glad. My soul will rejoice when your lips speak what is right'
 Nothing could better express the pride and emotion a father feels when he understands that he has handed down to his child what really matters in life, that is, a wise heart."

"Experience shows that an appeal to justice alone will result in its destruction. This is why God goes beyond justice with His mercy and forgiveness. Yet this does not mean that justice should be devalued or rendered superfluous. On the contrary: anyone who makes a mistake must pay the price. However, this is just the beginning of conversion, not its end, because one begins to feel the tenderness and mercy of God. God does not deny justice. He rather envelops it and surpasses it with an even greater event in which we experience love as the foundation of true justice."

— Pope Francis
