MISSION STATEMENT FOR THE PARISH of CORPUS CHRISTI

We, the people of Corpus Christi, are blessed to be called the "Body of Christ". May we always strive to fulfill His teaching in how we live our lives. We envision our Parish Mission as promoting and improving the community of God by proclaiming the Good News through:

- ✦ participating actively in the liturgy and sacraments;
- ✦ living the Gospel message and practicing conversion in our daily lives;
- ✦ welcoming and nourishing new and inactive members, as well as educating all groups;
- ✦ practicing respect for all life: the unborn, youth, aged, sick, disabled, poor and needy;
- ✦ evangelizing and promoting social justice and harmony among all peoples.

May God bless us and be with us as we go forth to fulfill our Parish Mission.

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners,

In today's gospel reading, Luke continues Jesus' "journey narrative." The narrative combines several journeys and incorporates several statements of Jesus, making the journey a symbolic one. In this way, the journey is not only Jesus' journey, but also ours through the mystery of His cross, death and resurrection.

Jesus actually went to Jerusalem, but for many of us who will never make an actual journey to Jerusalem, the journey takes on a symbolic meaning - the way by which we follow Jesus through death to new life, even here on earth.

Jerusalem is an actual geographical place where our faith rests on what really happened in the ministry of Jesus. But for many of us, followers of Jesus, it is much more than a geographical location. It becomes the way by which we follow Jesus as His disciples. We relive the great redemptive deeds of Jesus in the Holy City, even if we have never made the journey to Jerusalem.

It seems that Luke's "journey narrative" is trying to make us realize that it is our journey through life as well, so that the passion and death of Jesus becomes a living, transforming reality for us.

While on His journey to Jerusalem, the meaning of some of Jesus sayings were difficult to comprehend. He reprimanded His disciples against anger and revenge, and even though we can understand and accept this admonition, we quickly forget when hard times assail us. In His next statement to a prospective follower, (that is, to us) Jesus says that ". . . the Son of Man has nowhere to lay His head." And we sometimes wonder if we can understand and live this type of life. His third statement seems so cold and harsh. "Let the dead bury the dead; come away and proclaim the kingdom of God."

As Christians we keep our minds and hearts turned toward eternal life. We realize that ours is an apostolate of life; that our family extends to all throughout the world; that we do not labor over the mistakes of the past or its glories, but that we continue to strive and work for the coming of the kingdom of God.

St. Paul points out how we can make a good judgement by saying, "it was for liberty that Christ freed us." All law and external pressures are secondary to the realization that our lives flow primarily from the presence of Jesus, whose life, death and resurrection direct us to how we can deny ourselves in order to live more abundantly as God's new creation.

We ". . . have been called to live in freedom. . ." not the freedom of living according to our human weaknesses and selfishness, but in freedom to live the fulfillment of the whole law; that is, to love our neighbor as we love ourselves.

If we live according to the Spirit, we are guided by the Spirit. We will be able to act spontaneously and be assured that God is with us, and that we are doing His will. If we keep Christ ever before us, we will respond to every situation in peace and with good judgement. As His followers He will show us the path to life and give us fullness of joy in His presence.

God bless you,

The Congregation of the Sisters of Saint Joseph has decided to close their mission here at Corpus Christi Parish. Sisters Ann Jose, Helen and Eleanor will be moving to the Motherhouse at Chestnut Hill. Sister Barbara will be going to another convent.

Our parish is very grateful to the Congregation for their many years of dedicated service to this entire community, especially to our children. In order to thank them more properly, we will be planning a "Thank You Celebration" in the Fall for all the Sisters who have served here. The Sisters will be here at Corpus Christi for most, if not all, of the Summer.

The Congregation will still have someone present on our staff as Parish Outreach Coordinator. Sister Mary Carol McCaffrey will be replacing Sister Eleanor, but commuting from another convent.

The Vicar for Consecrated Life is assisting in the search for another small, religious community who is looking for housing to possibly occupy our convent.

Once again we are saddened by this news and are thankful to the Sisters. They leave here with our gratitude for those who have served and our prayers for the Congregation.

Mortgage Reduction Collection

July to date	Not available at printing
--------------	---------------------------

First Reading: Isaiah 66:10-14c Isaiah instructs the people of Jerusalem to rejoice, because God would restore her prosperity. The people will better understand God's power through their homeland's restoration.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 123:1-4 Our eyes are fixed on the Lord.

Second Reading: Galatians 6:14-18 Paul describes the sign of the cross of Jesus as all that is significant. Following the old laws is unimportant. Instead, being baptized in Christ and adhering to His ideals is what matters most.

Gospel: Luke 10:1-12,17-20 Jesus sent forth seventy-two disciples to preach His good news, telling them “the harvest is rich, but the workers few.” He also gave them detailed instructions on how to act towards the people. Jesus then reminded them not to be happy because of their power over evil, but to rejoice in the salvation they would achieve.

Family Connection

Families teach a sense of togetherness and community. It is in the family that we learn that we are dependent on one another and where we learn to work together and live together. In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus sends out the 72 disciples in pairs, a sign that we are to work together to serve the mission of the Kingdom of God.

Talk about all the ways that your family works together. Talk about the various chores and tasks that family members work on together to accomplish in order to keep the household running smoothly.

Read aloud Luke 10:1-12,17-20. Talk about why it was important that Jesus sent His disciples out in pairs. Discuss ways that your family can work more closely together to support one another and to make the household run more smoothly. Pray for the strength to overcome the temptation to be too individualistic and to recognize the need for working together as a family.

AROUND THE ARCHDIOCESE of PHILADELPHIA

ARCHDIOCESE OF PHILADELPHIA ANNOUNCES PARTICIPATION IN THE "SPIRITUAL MOTHERHOOD PRAY FOR MY PRIEST" PROGRAM

The Archdiocese of Philadelphia will participate in the ministry of Spiritual Motherhood and Adoration Cenacles, a program begun by the apostolate Pray For My Priest. It seeks to organize faithful Roman Catholic women to put the spiritual care of all priests in the Archdiocese at the forefront of their prayer life and good works.

Its goal is to match each priest anonymously with a "Spiritual Mother", a woman of prayer, who will raise her "priest son" up to God unceasingly in prayer and sacrifice so that he may best fulfill his vocation to serve God and His people.

Additionally, Adoration Cenacles for Priests will invite the faithful to come together in prayer for one hour in front of the Holy Eucharist specifically for the sanctification and fortification of priests.

Casseroles for St John's Hospice will be picked up Thursday, July 11th. Pick-up day is always the second Thursday of the month. Each day St. John's provides between 500 and 700 meals to the homeless. Won't you help with this project by taking a pan and filling it with a recipe of your choice? The recipe should have a meat, poultry, or fish base. Please use only the pans that are provided by St John's and are available on the tables with the burgundy covers in the narthex of the church. They are also available in the gray garage next to the freezers. Do not overfill the pans. Please bring your solidly frozen casseroles to the three-bay gray garage near the convent by Wednesday July 10th. The truck has been arriving very early on the second Thursday. Be sure that the freezers are turned on before leaving your casserole. If you have any questions, please call Kay Smerke at (215) 855-1783 or visit <http://www.saintjohnshospice.org/Casserole%20Recipes.htm>.

Summer Recycling

Although school is now out and we're heading into the summer, don't forget to keep bringing your old newspapers, magazines etc. to our paper recycling bins in the back of the school parking lot. Paper recycling is a year round event. Since its inception, Corpus Christi Parish has earned $9,885 from this program, so by continuing to use our bins for recycling, you're not only helping the environment, but you're also supporting your parish and for this we thank you very much.
