PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners,

It sometimes takes a crisis to help us focus our thinking on the fact that God is the underlying source of all that we do in life. Many survivors of crises have said that their faith in God is what brought them through their ordeal. They realized that they were powerless against events beyond their control. Their only recourse was to rely on their belief and trust in God. This trust cannot logically be explained. The high-tech world in which we live often creates for us the illusion that we are in control. This false sense of power and control can draw our attention away from God. However, God wants to be part of every aspect of our lives. But we must first trust God in all things and not rely only on ourselves. Developing trust in God can be difficult but not impossible. Complete trust may take most of our lifetime before it shows itself in our behavior and words, but it is something that we can attain.

There are many people who have shown complete trust in God. Mary, the Mother of our Lord, is an example of one who gave herself completely to God's will. The late Blessed Teresa of Calcutta is a modern, vivid example of one who had complete trust in God. Today's scripture readings give us even more examples of those who trusted God in all things: the prophet Isaiah, Saint Paul and Saint Peter. None were born having total trust. They learned to trust God in all things. Each of them were given the gift of wisdom which allowed them to recognize God as the source of all that occurs in life. In the first reading, the prophet Isaiah addressed the word of God to the leaders of Jerusalem. They trusted in their dealings with other nations but failed to trust in God.

The second reading from Paul's letter to the Romans takes place at a time when Paul's mission to the Jewish and Gentile Christians of Rome had not been completely successful. Paul's ability to convince through his arguments and reasoning had not completely won over the Christians of Rome. Paul now reaches into his heart and utters a prayer of praise which reflects his deep love and devotion to a God in whom you can entrust your life. In addition to this prayer of unwavering trust, Paul's life as a missionary gives witness to his absolute trust in God in all things.

In the Gospel, Peter was the only disciple able to answer the question Jesus posed: "Who do people say that the Son of Man is?" Peter's answer identified Jesus as the Messiah, the Son of the living God. How could a fisherman know this? This is the same Peter who did not understand most of what Jesus taught and who would later deny Jesus three times. The fact that even a flawed person such as Peter merited receiving God's gift of revelation is cause for great hope. It took Peter a long time to reach the point where he could listen to God's will in his life. He trusted in Jesus' words, that he was to build the Church and be entrusted with the keys to the kingdom.

Of all the models of trust mentioned in today's readings, Peter may be the example most like ourselves. He often did not understand the teachings of Jesus and even failed in his loyalty to Christ, but his martyred life gave honor and glory to God.

God bless you,

First Reading: Isaiah 22:19-23 This passage refers to the use of authority and indicates the Key as the symbol of authority. The words "open" and "shut" refer to the power that will eventually be given to Peter.

Responsorial Psalm: PS 138:1-2, 2-3, 6, 8

R. (8bc) Lord, Your love is eternal; do not forsake the work of Your hands.

Second Reading: Romans 11:33-36 Paul writes ecstatic and praise-filled words about God's plan for His people. In Him, he writes, "all things are."

Gospel: Matthew 16:13-20 When Jesus asks His disciples, "Who do you say that I am?" Peter exclaims, "You are the Messiah!" Christ then declares that Peter is the "Rock" upon which He will build His Church, promising him the power "to bind" and "to loose."

HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

"He asked His disciples, 'Who do people say that the Son of Man is?' They replied 'Some say John the Baptist, others Elijah still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.' He said to them, 'But who do you say that I am?' Simon Peter said in reply: 'You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.'"

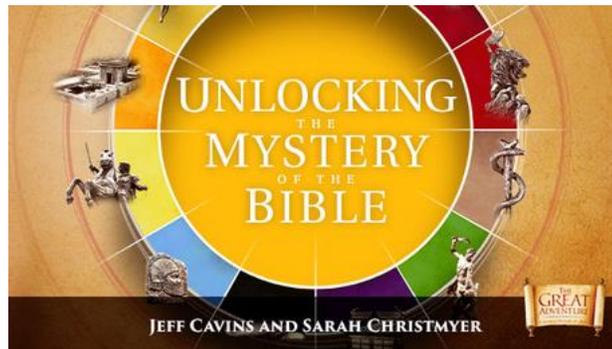

How curious that Jesus should ask this question. Did He want to be sure that the disciples had a clear understanding? Was Peter's response partly his own and partly from the Father? The conversation led to the promise of responsibility to be conferred on Peter after the resurrection.

May we restate Jesus' question as He presents it to us. 'Who is Jesus Christ for me today?' 'Where do I expect to find Him?' There is a great difference between knowing about someone and really knowing them. Jesus wants us to know Him better, love Him more deeply, and serve Him, especially in the most vulnerable and the needy.

Our reflection should lead us to want to have a greater knowledge of Jesus as our personal Savior, not just a figure written up in the gospels. My response to the question requires a new and ongoing commitment to the Christ, the Son of the living God. Jesus makes a promise to me, as He did to Peter. I'm glad He asked this question.

Have you ever wondered about our Catholic faith - why we as Catholic Christians do the things we do? Maybe you are a non-Catholic on a spiritual journey with our Lord or maybe you have never been baptized or maybe you have been and would now like to come into full communion and be confirmed. Our Lord may be calling you to "Come Home" to the Catholic faith - the faith instituted by Him. He is saying to you "Come, follow Me". The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) will be starting this fall. Here you will learn about the faith and ultimately "Come Home" to the Catholic faith at Easter time. If anyone is feeling the Lord is calling them to inquire, please contact Deacons Langsdorf or Currie at 215-855-1311 and leave a message.

Corpus Christi CYO Swim Team Info 2017

Corpus Christi CYO is starting a Swim Team this year. Children in grades K-8 who are members of Corpus Christi, St. Stanislaus and St. Maria Goretti parishes are eligible to join the Swim Team. Below are some details on the program.

Registration is open now at <https://corpus-christi-cyo.siplay.com/site/>. Registration will remain open until Friday, Sep. 15th. Practices will start the first week in Oct. and the season will run through the end of February. There will only be a few weeks of overlap with the fall sports, so there should be minimal conflicts.

- Our team will participate in the Catholic Youth Swim League (CYSL) which includes 16 parishes in Bucks, Montgomery and NE Philly. The CYSL has over 1,100 swimmers and has existed for over 35 years.
- The CYO Registration fee is $100 per swimmer. Because practices will be held at the Lansdale YMCA, a membership will be required for each swimmer payable to the YMCA. The current rate is $23/month ($115 for 5 months plus $35 joining fee) per child (there are also family rates available). Families that already have an existing membership, will not need an additional one. If you need to purchase a membership, wait until CYO provides additional information as we might be able to have the $35 joining fee waived.
- Practices will be at the Lansdale YMCA on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 7:00-8:30pm. The younger children should be finished by 8:00pm. We will have the entire pool which is 25 yards, 4 lanes.
- There will be 7 dual meets at various locations in Philly, Bucks and Montco and a Championship meet at LaSalle University. All meets will be on Saturday or Sunday.
- Corpus is responsible for hosting two dual meets. We are tentatively scheduled to have these at St. Joseph's Univ., or a closer location.
- Grades are K through 8th. All children must be able to swim prior to joining the team. They must be able to swim one lap (25 yards). Any swimmers whom the coaches evaluate as not ready for this season, will have their registration fee refunded.
- All levels of swimmers are welcome and all 4 strokes will be taught.
- We will need a significant number of volunteers for practices and meets. Every family will be required to help in some capacity.

If you have additional questions or would like to help as a volunteer, please contact cc-cyo@verizon.net. Thank you, Corpus Christi CYO
