Mission Statement for the Parish of Corpus Christi

We, the people of Corpus Christi, are blessed to be called the "Body of Christ". May we always strive to fulfill His teaching in how we live our lives. We envision our Parish Mission as promoting and improving the community of God by proclaiming the Good News through:

- ✘ Participating actively in the liturgy and sacraments;
- ✘ Living the Gospel message and practicing conversion in our daily lives;
- ✘ Welcoming and nourishing new and inactive members, as well as educating all groups;
- ✘ Practicing respect for all life: the unborn, youth, aged, sick, disabled, poor and needy;
- ✘ Evangelizing and promoting social justice and harmony among all peoples.

MAY GOD BLESS US AND BE WITH US AS WE GO FORTH TO FULFILL OUR PARISH MISSION.

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners,

As thinking, rational human beings, we pride ourselves on being logical. We conduct our business affairs so that our dealings are fair. We balance our checkbooks and budget our resources. We raise our children to play fair and to expect fairness in return. We solve math problems in logical sequences and approach our lives with fair-mindedness.

We are reminded in today's readings that we can't apply human logic to situations involving God. According to the first reading from Isaiah, the Lord tells us that His ways are above our ways, and His thoughts are above our thoughts. In the parable Jesus speaks of a landowner who hires laborers agreeing to pay them the usual daily wage. Throughout the course of the day he hires additional workers. But at the end of the day, he pays them all the same. He is not acting unjustly. He is not violating the early morning agreement. When those hired first protest, he simply responds, "Are you envious because I am generous?"

God's mercy, wisdom, and justice is beyond our comprehension. Unfortunately, we try to put an infinite being into our own finite world. We try to make God's rules fit our lives instead of making our lives fit God's rules.

That is what conversion is all about. It literally means "to change". To extend ourselves beyond our comfort zone; to give more than we receive; to realize that all we have and all we are is a gift of God; to forgive the unforgivable; to make Christ the center of our lives.

Paul has it right. In his letter to the Philippians, he reflects that "life is Christ, but death is gain." He can go on serving Christ and the early Christians, and that would be a fruitful existence. Or he could "depart this life and that would be far better." In either case, Christ is central.

That is why we gather in Church every Sunday – to convert our minds and hearts to the teachings of Christ. We gather to be reminded by His word and Eucharist so that we might go out into the world and act like Him – to be Christ to others. We are supported by a community of believers so that, together, our actions will bear fruit. When we fail, we try again to overcome our human condition and to convert our hearts and minds to the ways of Christ.

Isaiah, Paul, and Matthew are reminding us that God's way is different. It is beyond our comprehension. Only after we accept this truth can we begin to conduct ourselves in a way worthy of the gospel of Christ.

God bless you,

A note from the Family of Fr. Kevin Kelly ...

To the Parishioners of Corpus Christi,

Father Kevin Kelly's family says Thank You. For all of the kind notes, Mass cards, donations and your heartfelt comments we again say Thank You. We attempted to send as many individual thank you notes as possible, but we did not have all of the addresses and we very much wanted to make sure you knew that Father Kevin's family is so very appreciative of your love for our brother. We were taken with the depth of the feeling you had for Father Kevin that in the midst of this sadness you were and are a source of comfort for us. Father Kevin loved being a priest. He loved his students. He loved your parish. Please remember him for the unique and gifted priest he was. I do not think any of you will ever forget Father Kelly's words as he closed his homily "Just something to think about." We think Kevin gave all of us something to think about.

With grateful hearts,

The Kelly Family: Jack, Jim, Mike, Fran and Mary Kay

"ON THIS ROCK I WILL BUILD MY CHURCH" ~ Jesus Is it Time to "Come Home"?

Have you ever wondered about our Catholic faith - why we as Catholic Christians do the things we do? Are you a non-Catholic on a spiritual journey with our Lord or a Catholic who has never received all of the Sacraments and would like to come into full communion with the Church? Maybe our Lord is tugging at your heart inviting you to "Come Home" to the Catholic faith – the faith instituted by Him. The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) will be starting this fall. Here you can learn about the faith and possibly become a member of the church at Easter time. If anyone is feeling the Lord is calling them to inquire, please contact Deacons Langsdorf or Currie at deaconlangsdorf@gmail.com or deaconcurrie@gmail.com and leave a message.

PART TIME EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY-Position available to supervise the students during lunch in the cafeteria and in the schoolyard. The hours of employment are 11:00AM to 1:15PM each day the students are in school. Corpus Christi School parents are not eligible for this position. If interested, please call 215-368-0582.

Please join the Knights of Columbus and the Respect Life Group of Corpus Christi Parish on Monday evening, October 2, 2017 at 6:45PM as we recite the Rosary by candlelight at the statue of Mary outside the Chapel followed by Benediction in the Chapel. In the event of rain, the Rosary will be in the Chapel.

All are welcome to join us as we pray for LIFE, PEACE and our NATION!

First Reading: Isaiah 55:6-9 Isaiah expresses an urgent plea that all should seek the Lord and turn to Him for mercy.

Responsorial Psalm: PS 145:2-3, 8-9, 17-18
R. (18a) The Lord is near to all who call upon Him.

Second Reading: Philippians 1:20c-24, 27a In a strongly personal message from Paul while in prison, he says that he wishes "to be freed from this life and to be with Christ," but he realizes that he still has much important work to do.

Gospel: Matthew 20:1-16a Jesus tells the parable of the owner of an estate who hires workmen for his vineyard. When, at the end of the day, he pays a full day's wage to those who worked only one hour, those who worked all day complained bitterly. But the owner says, "I am free to do as I please, am I not?" Jesus reminds us through this parable that "the last shall be first and the first shall be last."

HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

"Seek the Lord while He may be found, call Him while He is near. Let the scoundrel forsake his way and the wicked his thoughts, let him turn to the Lord for mercy, to our God who is generous in forgiving. For my thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways my ways, says the Lord."

The scripture readings at mass these past few weeks have put great emphasis on forgiveness. We are invited to reflect on our ability to forgive others and ourselves. We are reminded to seek forgiveness from God and from others.

Sometimes we tend to pass quickly over one or another of these three. How important that I seek the forgiveness of God. Our act of contrition or acts of penance direct us to God's mercy. Our willingness, not to bear a grudge or get even, but to understand someone else and say 'that's o.k.' is life giving. I admit my own shortcomings and realize that I am not always right and need to say 'I'm sorry'. Finally, I must learn to forgive myself and not dwell on my wrongs, but get up and move on as a forgiven and forgiving person.

Yes, forgiveness is the power I have in my hand and heart.

We pray for the deceased members, relatives and friends of our parish family, especially Audrey Rushton.

Father of all, we pray to Thee for those we love, but see no longer. Grant them Thy peace, let light perpetually shine on them; and in Thy loving wisdom and Almighty power, work in them the same good purpose of Thy will; through Jesus Christ our Lord.
+Amen
