PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners,

If you have had the experience of asking someone – a child, or a spouse, or a parent – for a particular favor or, perhaps more importantly, for something that is needed, and had that request rejected again and again, you know the frustration of the person in today's gospel story.

This inability of persons to respond has become a real part of life today. Our simplest requests for service in a store, or for someone to listen in our families, seem to be falling on unhearing ears. The results are devastating for most individuals. We tend to become more and more uncaring ourselves. We begin to think that everyone has this same attitude. Worst of all, we begin to adopt it for ourselves.

Of course, there is no easy solution to this growing problem of lack of communication. But the gospel story offers us an interesting solution – a suggestion of a way to handle situations such as are described in the Gospel. If we are not going to receive an answer from those with whom we wish to communicate, we might decide to pray or talk to God about the situation.

It probably will help us to find our own solution to the problem. We will begin, after a certain amount of meditation to see the situation from another perspective, one which we can eventually accept. Our conversation with God will probably reaffirm our intention to begin to listen ourselves to the pleas and needs of others.

God bless you,

Pastoral Council Update

Thank you to all parishioners who took time after Mass on September 24th and 25th to speak with members of the pastoral council and share your comments and questions. Some comments we heard from several parishioners include making better use of electronic communication and social media, ensuring that our parish continues to offer valuable faith formation programs and reaching out to members of our parish who do not worship with us regularly. We value your input and the council is working to address your comments and concerns. If you did not have the opportunity to speak with a member of the pastoral council, please feel free to reach out to any member of the council or contact Steve Finley at 267-648-0027 or sfinley@gibbonslaw.com.

As announced at Mass last month, the parish will host an open house on Sunday, November 13th from 9:30 to 11:30 in the Father Doyle Hall. At the open house, our parish will showcase the good work we do and highlight the activities of our many parish ministries. All parishioners are invited to attend and learn more about the many works of our parish and discover how you can become more involved in the life of Corpus Christi Parish. Please look for more information about the open house in the weeks ahead.

First Reading: Exodus 17:8-13 Amalek and his people attacked the Israelites, so Moses instructed Joshua to lead some of the Israelites into battle the next day. While Moses kept his hands raised in prayer, the Israelites were winning. But when he put his hands down, they would begin to lose. So two others helped him keep his hands raised, and Joshua and the Israelites won the battle.

Responsorial Psalm: PS 121:1-2, 3-4, 5-6, 7-8
R. (cf. 2) Our help is from the Lord, who made heaven and earth.

Second Reading: 2 Timothy 3:14—4:2 Paul tells Timothy that the Scriptures are inspired by God and are an excellent tool in teaching others about God's expectations of His people. Knowledge of the Scriptures, coupled with faith in Jesus, will lead many people to salvation. Paul urges Timothy to continue preaching the gospel, although this will sometimes be a difficult task.

Gospel: Luke 18:1-8 Jesus speaks about a corrupt judge who lacked respect for either God or man. A widow repeatedly asked him to settle a case in her favor. He finally settled the case, only because he grew weary of listening to her requests. Jesus points out that if even this corrupt judge eventually listened, then God, who is just, will certainly answer the pleas of His people.

HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

"Beloved. Remain faithful to what you have learned and believed, because you know from whom you learned it and that from infancy you have known the sacred scriptures, which are capable of giving you wisdom for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus."

How well do I know the scriptures? I am aware of many events in the life of Christ. I am aware of His teaching, His miracles, His dying and rising. Yes, I know some important things found in the bible.

Most of us have copies of the bible in our homes. Many record their family histories, of sacraments celebrated. A family history accompanies the history of salvation. However for many, the book has become dusty and our faith rusty. Paul encourages Timothy reminding him that it is the word inspired by God to do four things – teach, defend, correct and train – to be competent and equipped for good work.

I wonder where I can join a bible study group? I need a book to help me understand the scriptures. I want to accept this important recommendation Paul gave to Timothy. I need to know the scriptures. St. Jerome, who translated the scriptures into Latin, teaches that if we do not know the scriptures, we do not know Christ.

Let's begin... The bible is allergic to dust, I polish my knowledge to get rid of the rust.
