PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners,

Today marks the beginning of a new liturgical year, also known as the year of grace. Throughout the liturgical year we are led through the mysteries of the life of Jesus. Imagine a spiral to help you visualize the liturgical year. During the year each Sunday moves us around the circle of the spiral until we come full circle and begin again with a new year. But each new year moves up a level on the spiral so that we do not repeat the same circle. We will revisit the mysteries of Jesus, but from different perspectives.

Today we celebrate the mystery of God's promise of salvation fulfilled in Christ. The preface for today's Eucharistic Prayer proclaims that Jesus fulfilled the plan formed by God long ago by opening to us the way of salvation. Advent is a time of waiting until the salvation promised us will be ours when Christ comes again in glory.

God's promise of salvation was integral to the life of the Israelites. Today we hear the prophet Isaiah say that Israel failed – once again – to keep their part of the covenant with God. Isaiah cries out to God to come and – once again – save His people because they have sinned. Throughout the history of Israel, God remained faithful to His promise while the Israelites failed time after time. All we have to do is substitute us for the Israelites in order to see that we are just as susceptible to sinning against God as they were. The good news is that God is just as faithful to us as to the Israelites.

Saint Paul gives thanks to God for the gifts bestowed on the Corinthians: gifts of speech and knowledge, as well as spiritual gifts. He reminds them that Jesus will strengthen them to the very end with all that they need. In this way they will be blameless on the day of judgement. As they await the return of the Savior, they will be made stronger. Paul is also speaking to us as we begin our Advent season of waiting, telling us that as we prepare for the coming of Christ, our needs also will be met. Knowing of God's faithfulness with the Israelites and the Corinthians, we have faith in what Paul tells us.

Jesus is the fulfillment of God's promise of salvation. In today's gospel Jesus continues to carry out the Father's plan of salvation by teaching His disciples about the importance of being prepared with such descriptive warning as: "watch, stay awake, you do not know, be on guard". Jesus realized that human nature was weak and prone to failure. It is easy to be caught off guard and Jesus knew this. That is why He was so insistent that the disciples be ready for the Master's return. Jesus understands our human weakness and calls us to Himself to receive forgiveness, grace and strength as we await His coming.

God bless you,

TRIDUUM FOR THE SOLEMNITY OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

After a series of demanding commandments in the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus sums up: "Be perfect, therefore, as your heavenly Father is perfect" (Matthew 5:48).

The Immaculate Conception is the Icon of what it means to truly be human and perfect. Our Lady is the embodiment of Christian perfection and she is totally human as a Woman, the Spouse of Joseph and the Mother of Jesus.

Our reflections will develop this fundamental theme of the Christian life and how in the Immaculate Conception we are all invited to truly be human and Christ like.

First Reading: Isaiah 63:16b-17, 19b, 64:2-7 In this straightforward psalm, the people acknowledge their sinful ways, yet plead that their Creator might reveal Himself to them. They ask God to remember, not their sins, but that "We are all the work of Your hands."

Responsorial Psalm: PS 80:2-3, 15-16, 18-19
R. (4) Lord, make us turn to You; let us see Your face and we shall be saved.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 1:3-9 Paul explains to the Corinthians that they are specially favored by God Who has sent His only Son to them. He reminds us all that it was through God's grace that we have been called to kinship with Christ.

Gospel: Mark 13:33-37 Just as a servant watching over the master's house does not know when he will return, we do not know the hour of the Second Coming. Mark reminds us of the warning from Jesus to always be on guard, for we know not the day nor the hour.

HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

"Jesus said to His disciples: 'Be constantly on watch, stay awake. You do not know when the appointed time will come. It is like a man traveling abroad. He leaves home and places his servants in charge each with his own task, and he orders the man at the gate to watch with a sharp eye. Look around you.'"

We begin a new season of grace, the wonderful time of preparing the way of the Lord, recalling His coming in history, His abiding presence among us now, and looking to discover the way He enters our lives. This year we have four full weeks to live advent.

Like the person in Mark's gospel, the Lord has entrusted each of us with distinct, yet important tasks. My work is different from others, and if I fail to do it, it will remain undone. How am I going to begin this time of prayer?

I can make a resolution not to get caught up only with the material things in our consumer oriented society. My prayer with my family, my reflection on the scriptures, will certainly point me in the right direction. As I consider what I am going to do, I want to include others, the elderly, the sick and the poor, those alone or lonely, to make their lives better. They are part of God's gift for me to take care of.

May the closing words of the Bible become my mantra each day, simply repeating three words prayerfully 'Come Lord Jesus.'
