PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners,

Most of us don't like to wait. Even when it is something as simple as a stop light, many are ready to go, tapping the steering wheel, muttering, "come on, come on" and generally working themselves into a small frenzy as they wait for that miraculous green to replace the awful red.

Consider waiting several thousand years. Further consider, what it must have been like for people in exile to wait for the coming of their Savior, or the opportunity to return to their lands. Imagine their feelings as they listened to Isaiah proclaim the coming of the Lord. Consider, too, the point of Saint Peter who said, "One day is as a thousand years and a thousand years are as a day."

Were these people crazy? How can they wait? We can't wait for the mail, especially at this time of year. I am sure that some people, especially children, are anxiously waiting. A thousand years? Wait in patience? Yet, when we speak of the Lord, what are we talking about?

When the mission of Jesus was about to start, God sent John to prepare the way for His Son. John was pointing out how the Lord has shown His kindness and salvation. Even in his preaching, he would point out that "One more powerful than I is to come after me."

The physical revelation of God's kindness and salvation was about to be made manifest and to proclaim the kingdom of God to all His people. The promise made to the patriarchs would be fulfilled. The waiting would be over. The "kindness of God" would be revealed, and freedom would be restored. The life that we have, because of God's mercy, would be revealed totally in us, and all would be fine in the future.

When we are impatiently going about our business during these hectic days of Advent, when we are wondering whether the mail or UPS would get our package to its destination on time, why don't we all consider the importance of the presence of God who is still with us?

It is really too bad that the world has joined its Christmas shopping season with our Advent season. This season lends itself to so much reflection in today's world. It would be wonderful if we were able to take the time out to really experience the "kindness" and "salvation" of the Lord in our lives.

When we are stopped at a red light, when we are mired in a traffic jam near the mall, when we are last in line at the checkout counter, those are opportunities for each of us to take some time and "be patient," as we reflect on the "kindness" and "salvation" of the Lord. This season is a special blessing to all of us. May we use it wisely this year as we continue to "wait in joyful hope for the coming of our Savior, Jesus Christ."

God bless you,

First Reading: Isaiah 40:1-5, 9-11 Isaiah emphasizes that from the desert to the mountains, all people must prepare for "the glory of the Lord to be revealed." Rather than looking only at God's power, Isaiah focuses on God's kindness, comparing it to a shepherd who feeds and cares for his flock.

Responsorial Psalm: PS 85:9-10-11-12, 13-14

R. (8) Lord, let us see Your kindness, and grant us Your salvation.

Second Reading: 2 Peter 3:8-14 For those who are impatient for the Second Coming, Peter explains that time is different to God than to people. He reminds them that they should be grateful for the extra time to prepare, and concentrate on striving to become all that God would want them to be.

Gospel: Mark 1:1-8 In this passage, John the Baptist stressed the importance of the coming of the Messiah. He acknowledged that he was only the messenger, and unfit to "stoop and untie His sandal straps." John urged them to prepare for One far holier than he, who would walk among them.

HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

"The Lord does not delay in keeping His promises, though some consider it 'delay.' Rather He shows you generous patience since He wants no one to perish but all to come to repentance... I send my messenger before you to prepare your way, a herald voice in the desert crying, 'Make ready the way of the Lord clear Him a straight path.'"

The letter of Peter and Isaiah's message in the gospel of Mark, provide a wonderful opportunity to begin this second week of advent. Somehow it is easy, or convenient, to forget or presume why Jesus came two thousand years ago. A lost people needed a Savior, to bring them back to union with their creator. He came, revealed the Father's love for us and still invites us to respond to that love. Do I see my need today, and the needs of my family and our world?

Let's face it, our messed up world needs a Savior, not a political leader or powerful military strength, but someone to free us from sin and all that divides us, the barriers which keep us from growing in holiness, in grace, or love of God and neighbor. Advent invites us to focus on our need for the Lord today. Advent, the great time of hope and expectation calls us to make ready the way of the Lord, to invite Him into our hearts and the hearts of others.

CREATED, LOVED, REDEEMED BY GOD – PRICELESS

It is forty-five years since the horrible ruling of Roe-V-Wade. Are you ready to join the Corpus Christi Respect Life Committee and the Knights of Columbus Council #9715 on our prayerful pilgrimage to the annual March for Life in Washington, D C? This year the march will be held on Friday January 19, 2018.

The schedule is as follows:

Arrive at Corpus Christi Parish prepared for the day and attend a special 6:30am Mass, then board the Perkiomen Tour Bus on the RE Room side of the church. The bus will depart the church parking lot at 7:15

AM. Please be prompt. Dress warmly, and bring a bag lunch, water and snacks. There is a restroom on the bus and we will make one brief restroom stop on I-95. The bus will continue on to Washington and we will disembark from the bus at Union Station. We will walk together following the CC Respect Life Banner and the K of C Banner from Union Station. We will walk up First Street NE to Constitution Avenue. We will turn right on to Constitution Avenue and continue walking to the Ellipse at 17th and Constitution Avenues (about one mile). We hope to arrive in time to hear some of the speeches. The March for Life begins about 1 PM. We will join in following our banners and proceed back up Constitution Avenue toward the Capitol and continue on to the Supreme Court. We will pray there for an end to legalized abortion. It is very congested at the front of the Supreme Court Building. Remember to go back out the same way you entered D Street SE to get in front of the Supreme Court Building. We will meet at the corner of First Street NE in front of the Russell Senate Office Building. LOOK FOR OUR BANNERS. We will proceed down First Street NE back to Union Station where we will board the bus for home at 4 PM. The sooner we leave Washington the better chance we will have of being able to stop to eat at the Maryland House on I-95. It is the first and largest stop for us to get some dinner. The cost for the trip is $25 per adult. Students go for free, but they must be accompanied by an adult. After dinner we board the bus and hope to return to Corpus Christi by 9 PM. Sign-ups start now.

The sign-up board is in the Narthex of the church. Please pay in full to reserve your seat. Make checks payable to Corpus Christi Respect Life and send to Mary Ellen McCabe, 2136 Old Forde Way, Lansdale, PA 19446. (Home #215-368-1422). Checks may be dropped off at the Parish Office in an envelope labeled Respect Life Bus Trip. REMEMBER: Payment for your seat is transferable, but not refundable. A new bright yellow scarf will be given to everyone.

Please join us this year on our prayerful pilgrimage to save our unborn children.
