- ✠ Living the Gospel message and practicing conversion in our daily lives;
- ✠ Welcoming and nourishing new and inactive members, as well as educating all groups;
- ✠ Practicing respect for all life: the unborn, youth, aged, sick, disabled, poor and needy;

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners,

If we reflect on the Scriptures, we begin to realize that it is God who initiates a relationship with us. In practice, we may find ourselves letting God into our lives when we are in need, and then forgetting about God when life is going well. How can we open ourselves to God so that God is part of the difficult as well as the good times of our lives?

At Mass we pray, “Lamb of God, You take away the sins of the world . . .” One of the many titles for Jesus is “the Lamb of God”. A tremendous meaning is contained in this title. Jesus is the sacrificial lamb given over to death for our salvation. John the Baptist identified Jesus as the Lamb of God to his disciples who in turn went to see for themselves. They responded to the invitation of Jesus to “come and see”. We know they went with Jesus, but what did they see and come to understand?

The gospel today tells us specifically, but we can imagine that the disciples ate dinner together, asked questions, and listened to Jesus as He taught the people. The gospel does show us that they came to understand they had found the Messiah. The actions of these disciples, and Simon Peter also, give the impression that they were awaiting God’s call. The Psalmist today best describes their attitude, “I have waited, waited for the Lord . . .” Their response was immediate. They wasted no time pursuing John’s tip about the Lamb of God, and in responding to the invitation from Jesus to come and see.

In today’s first reading the young Samuel sleeps in the Temple. People often sleep in places other than home when they are keeping vigil. From Samuel’s immediate response to each of God’s calls we see that he was anticipating something from someone. His response was immediate and enthusiastic. Samuel was “waiting, waiting for the Lord . . .” His enthusiasm did not seem to wane even with the third interruption of his sleep. Finally, when called the fourth time, God was revealed to Samuel. Samuel’s response was to say that he would listen to God. We can learn from young Samuel that we, too, need to listen to God.

In today’s second reading, St. Paul takes the dynamic of God’s call and our response to its ultimate outcome. By God’s grace we became members of Christ when we responded to Christ’s invitation to “come and see”. We can posture ourselves to listen to God, as did Samuel, we can recognize the Messiah and come to be members of the body of Christ. We, too, should be able to say, “I have waited, waited for the Lord . . .” and have responded with the enthusiasm of Samuel and the disciples.

God bless you,

MARCH FOR LIFE 2018

CREATED, LOVED, REDEEMED BY GOD – PRICELESS

It is forty-five years since the horrible ruling of Roe-V-Wade. Are you ready to join the Corpus Christi Respect Life Committee and the Knights of Columbus Council #9715 on our prayerful pilgrimage to the annual March for Life in Washington, D C? This year the march will be held on Friday January 19, 2018.

The Respect Life Committee is well aware that everyone cannot attend the March for Life in Washington, DC on Friday January 19th. BUT you can still participate by praying the Rosary at home during the day or by making a visit to our chapel to pray in front of the tabernacle for an end to abortion. The chapel is open every day from after the 7:15 Mass to about 3 PM in the afternoon. You should park in front of the Parish House and enter the chapel through the outside doors. We would also like to encourage you to do the same thing on the actual date of the Roe v Wade decision Monday January 22nd. Just an FYI, EWTN carries all the speeches, the Mass from the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception and the March for Life the whole day.

We will celebrate the start of Catholic Schools Week at the 10am liturgy on Sunday, January 28. Afterwards, please join us for an Open House at Corpus Christi School from 11am-12:30pm to learn more about our school community and see all the great things happening at Corpus Christi! You can also keep up with CCS events and activities by liking us on Facebook (Corpus Christi School - Lansdale) and following us on Twitter (@corpuschristi_s)

First Reading: 1 Samuel 3:3b-10, 19 This powerful story describes Samuel, who at the time was the servant of the high priest. The Lord called out to Samuel, who twice thought Eli had called him. They gradually realized that it was the Lord who called for him. So the third time Samuel answered and the Lord remained with Samuel as he grew.

Responsorial Psalm: PS 40:2, 4, 7-8, 8-9, 10 Here am I, Lord; I come to do Your will.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 6:13c-15a, 17-20 Paul explains to the Corinthians that their body is a temple of the Holy Spirit. He tells them to avoid lewd conduct, and glorify God by keeping their bodies pure.

Gospel: John 1:35-42 John told two of his disciples that Jesus is the Lamb of God. They turned and followed Him, immediately curious and attracted to Him. Andrew told his brother Simon about Jesus. Simon also came to meet Jesus, Who renamed him Cephas, or Peter.

HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

“John was standing with two of his disciples and as he watched Jesus walk by he said ‘Behold the Lamb of God.’ The two disciples heard what he said and followed Jesus. Jesus turned and saw them following Him and said to them, ‘What are you looking for?’ They said to Him, ‘Rabbi...where are you staying?’ He said to them ‘Come, and you will see.’”

The scene from John's gospel is simple and clear. John, the arrow, points out Jesus, with words we hear as we celebrate the Eucharist. It aroused the curiosity of Andrew. The conversation continues, as He asks, ‘what are you looking for?’ The same question is posed for the followers of Jesus today but we can change the what to who. ‘Come and you will see.’

This encounter with Jesus led Andrew to bring Peter to Jesus, and the rest is history. Pope Francis in his beautiful book ‘Walking with Jesus’ points out for us today the way of Jesus. May we look and find Him.

We pray for the deceased members, relatives and friends of our parish family, especially Stephen Hope, father of Colleen Bogle.

Lord, those who die still live in Your presence, their lives change but do not end. We pray in hope for our families, relatives and friends, and for all the dead known to You alone.
