PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners,

Sometimes we hear the expression, "Less is more." The New Testament was written in a similar lean style. The reader who looks for details commonly found in modern historical or even fictional writings is doomed to frustration. What color was Jesus' eyes? How tall was He? What did He wear? What kind of tools did Joseph have in his workshop? We look in vain for these answers.

The Divine Author who inspired the evangelists to write saw no need for details that would not add anything of importance to the message. We were told all that we really needed to know. The gold is there. The Church must mine the gold.

Mark's Gospel, which is probably the earliest of the four Gospels, is also the shortest of the four Gospels. Mark uses only thirteen words to describe the Resurrection, the most momentous event in the history of humanity: "Jesus rose from the dead early on the first day of the week."

The Gospel for this Sunday is a good example of brevity. Christ has called some apostles and begins to teach in the synagogue. The most frequent title for Christ in the New Testament is teacher / master / rabbi. No title for Christ is used more frequently. Mark says quite simply: "On the Sabbath Jesus entered the synagogue and taught." Synagogue worship of that time included a commentary on the Scripture. Mark does not give the Scripture text which Jesus chose, but we can only imagine how profound the teaching of the Son of God expounding on the Word of the Father would have been.

Mark moves quickly to give us the response of the congregation: "The people were astonished at His teaching." A scriptwriter for a movie would undoubtedly write Christ's scriptural reflection and show the astonishment of the people at the words of Christ but Mark at least gives us more than a hint of the reason for the astonishment of the people: "He taught them as one having authority." This authority is further emphasized when Christ immediately expelled the unclean spirit from one of the congregants.

Throughout human history, God has sent teachers with the message. The prophets foretold the coming of the Messiah. They challenged their students and they encouraged them. Some refused to hear the teachings. And then, when the time was fulfilled, Christ the great Divine Teacher, came to earth with "a new teaching with authority." He, too, had good students who quickly embraced the truth. He encouraged, sometimes reprimanded, and faced the disappointment of students who left and listened no more to Him.

Is Christ still teaching today? Christ did not leave us orphans, nor did He leave us as students without a teacher. The Church is Christ on earth, and it could not be Christ on earth if it did not teach with the authority of Christ. The word "Magisterium" refers to that teaching authority, which is protected by the Holy Spirit Who was sent upon the apostles and their successors on Pentecost Sunday.

To men and women of faith, there is a great comfort in knowing that we will not be taught error. God will not permit His Church to betray the truth. This is an article of faith. But human nature really has not changed since the time of Christ. There are people today, who as in Christ's time, hear the Word and embrace it with joy. The seeds of truth develop deep roots and grow into sturdy plants. There are also those who, for many reasons, reject the teachings. They find the Church's teachings too challenging or demanding. They are the hard soil and rocks on which the seed cannot grow.

The voice of Christ the Teacher is still with us today. The Church speaks with the voice of Christ. We must listen with open hearts.

God bless you,

We will celebrate the start of Catholic Schools Week at the 10am liturgy this Sunday, January 28. Afterwards, please join us for an Open House at Corpus Christi School from 11am-12:30pm to learn more about our school community and see all the great things happening at Corpus Christi!

First Reading: Deuteronomy 18:15-20 Moses explains to the people that a prophet will come from among them, and that they should listen to this prophet's words, for God has told him of this prophet. God also tells Moses that anyone who pretends to speak in His words, or speaks in the name of other gods shall die.

Responsorial Psalm: PS 95:1-2, 6-7, 7-9 If today you hear His voice, harden not your hearts.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 7:32-35 Paul tells the Corinthians how an unmarried man or woman is able to devote themselves fully to God without concern for the needs of a spouse. Paul explains that God wants to help them promote good and devote themselves more fully to God.

Gospel: Mark 1:21-28 As Jesus was teaching, a man with an unclean spirit came to the synagogue and asked if Jesus had come to destroy them. Jesus ordered the spirit out of the man, who shrieked violently as the spirit departed. The people were amazed at the authority He had over the spirit.

HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

"And the Lord said to me: This was well said. I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among your kin, and will put My words into his mouth; he shall tell them all that I command him. Whoever will not listen to My words which he speaks in My name, I Myself will make him answer for it. ...All were amazed and asked one another, 'What is this? A new teaching with authority.'"

Maybe we are not accustomed to read the book of Deuteronomy, but we find Moses, the prophet the spokesperson for God, who requested others to speak and the assembly to listen. As we read the Old Testament, we meet many others who responded to God's call, sometimes reluctantly, to speak in His behalf. Can you name some?

Prophetic voices continue to be heard today, as God calls leaders to teach and guide us. There are the well known teachers as the Holy Father, and our local bishops, assuming the role of teacher. There are others who through baptism assume the role of catechists and teachers of the faith. But there are countless others too who speak through their actions, bringing the mercy and message of the Lord to others.

As we begin this New Year may we open our ears to hear the message, our hearts to carry it out, and discover ways the Lord wishes to use us to do His ministry.

We pray for the deceased members, relatives and friends of our parish family, especially Donald Thomas, husband of Marlene; Rita Beinke, mother of Janet Stankus.

Lord, those who die still live in Your presence, their lives change but do not end. We pray in hope for our families, relatives and friends, and for all the dead known to You alone.

SCHOOL SUBSIDY (incl. interest expense)	256,121	596,185
TOTAL EXCESS INCOME (EXPENSE)	580,607	(179,878)
As reported to Archdiocese of Phila.
TOTAL EXCESS INCOME (EXPENSE)	580,607	147,000
Adjusted to account for the change from cash basis to accrual accounting in FY 2016
MORTGAGE – PRINCIPAL PAYMENT	97,022	114,495
Balance Remaining on Mortgage	2,696,710	2,782,271
ADDITIONS TO PROPERTY & EQUIPMENT	-- 0 --	11,898

For Fiscal Year ended June 30, 2017, Corpus Christi Parish's Excess Operating Income was $580,607 as compared to a loss of $179,878 for Fiscal Year 2016, an increase of approximately $760,000. However, the loss in 2016 was the result in a change from cash to accrual accounting as mandated by the Archdiocese for all parishes. The comparable 2016 Operating Income was approximately $147,000. On a consistent basis, 2017 Operating Income was approximately $433,000 higher than 2016.

The improvement in financial performance was the direct result of increased contributions by our parishioners. Specifically, Sunday offerings increased approximately 10% or $153,000. In addition, the Facilities Improvement collections increased by $54,000. These contributions continued into fiscal year 2018 with our Facilities Improvement Fund exceeding $100,000 as of November 30, 2017. This fund will be used for capital improvements and repairs to the parish physical plant and not for annual operating expenses. Proceeds from socials and special donations were also higher in 2017 by almost $60,000.

The 2017 expenses were lower than 2016 largely from reductions in payroll expenses, primarily by not filling open positions. In addition, because of increased enrollment and an approximate 6% tuition increase, the parish subsidy to the school was lower in 2017 than in 2016.

In 2017, we refinanced the mortgage on the Parish Center. The refinancing extends the maturity date of our $2.7 million debt until February 2027 and will result in lower annual payments.

In closing, the Parish Finance Council extends their thanks to all of the parishioners who increased their weekly offering, contributed to the Facilities Collection and made the cost reductions possible through their efforts, insights and sacrifices. Together, we can confidently continue our parish programs supporting our mission.
