PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners,

The season of Lent has barely begun. Only one and a half weeks of the time that the Church sets aside for our annual retreat has passed. A great amount of opportunity still lies before us. This is a time of reflection on how we have strayed from the Lord. It is a time of resolution to change. We are called to reform our lives so that we might be renewed. Ours is the challenge to be authentic again.

The authenticity to which we are called is that of being Church. All too often we consider ourselves as simply belonging to the Church. But, as the Assembly of Believers occupying this particular time and space when we worship, we bring the Church into being in the here and now. We are privileged to live at a time when we have experienced many new beginnings in the world. New beginnings in life are actually the yearnings of human beings to be real. For us Catholic Christians, that reality has to do with our being associated with Christ in His plan of salvation for God's people.

Abraham gives us a tremendous example of faith and trust. His commitment to be a dedicated instrument of God's will for His people was his motivation. And that is precisely our purpose, as we witness to the presence of the Son of God in our midst.

The Gospel reading today relates that scene to which we refer as "the Transfiguration". For Peter, James, and John, it was a revelation of things to come. But it was also a revelation of a reality hidden to normal sight. Even though unsure about the future, they saw that they were connected with the past. They were bolstered for the present. Never again would they be the same; for they, too, were transfigured in some way.

Forty percent of Americans can trace their ancestry through Ellis Island. But, can any one of us even begin to comprehend the hope that welled in the souls of that multitude of individuals, as they landed in what they called the "New World"? After days at sea while crowded in the steerage of a ship, they found themselves on an island among people they did not know being talked to in a language they did not understand. Can we even begin to sense the anxiety that filled their hearts? Yet, forty percent of us are Americans due to their faith and trust in God. We are the nation we are because of them. They made the United States the great country it is.

Lent gives us a wonderful opportunity to reflect on our own journey now and, eventually, into the Kingdom of Heaven. It also provides us with a window for reformation, a rededication of ourselves to be believers who are genuine and authentic. With the faith and trust of an Abraham, we are to allow the Lord to give to those around us a glimpse into a future full of hope. If we, the Church, fail to be the hope for the future, then to whom should those of the future turn?

The Catechism of the Catholic Church reminds us that "It is in the Church that Christ fulfills and reveals His own mystery as the purpose of God's plan" (#772). It also reminds us that we are that Church, an Assembly of Believers. Therefore, it is our role to present the Good News of Jesus Christ through our witness.

God bless you,

First Reading: Genesis 22:1-2, 9a, 10-13, 15-18 God ordered Abraham to take his beloved only son to Moriah and offer him as a sacrifice. Abraham built an altar and took out a knife to sacrifice his son Isaac. But God called out to him and told him of blessings that would be bestowed on him and his descendants because he had been willing to do what God had asked.

Responsorial Psalm: PS 116:10, 15, 16-17, 18-19
R. (116:9) I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living.

Second Reading: Romans 8:31b-34 Paul reminds the people that God did not spare His only Son, but gave Him up for the sake of all people. This proves God views us all as His children, and that no person can harm or condemn us because God will protect us.

Gospel: Mark 9:2-10

Jesus led Peter, James and John up a high mountain, where He conversed with Elijah and Moses. A voice proclaimed 'This is My Son, My beloved. Listen to Him.' Then Jesus was alone and warned them not to tell anyone what they had seen until He had risen from the dead.

HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

"Then Peter said to Jesus in reply 'Rabbi, it is good for us to be here. Let us make three tents, one for You, one for Moses and one for Elijah.' He hardly knew what to say, they were so terrified. Then a cloud came, casting a shadow over them, from the cloud came a voice, 'This is My beloved Son, Listen to Him.' Suddenly looking around they no longer saw anyone but Jesus alone with them."

Today we join the three apostles, the two prophets and Jesus on the Mount of the Transfiguration. A mountain in the bible is where God meets His people. The two great persons representing the law and the prophets, and Jesus, have a new experience of God's presence.

Like Peter today, it is good we are here for worship, or for private time reading, or reflecting on this scripture account. Like Peter we may not know what to say in the awesome presence of the Almighty. Following the voice from the cloud, we pause to listen. What is the Lord asking of me as I begin this second week of Lent? Is He offering me words of comfort and consolation in my life as I struggle to draw closer to Him? Is He wishing that I consider how special it is to spend some time apart to grow in holiness this Lent? As I descend from the mountain is it time for me to invite others to experience the great love Jesus has for us?

He is the Father's beloved and so am I.
As I look around may I too see only Jesus.

CORPUS CHRISTI LENTEN PRESENTATION

Therese of Lisieux: The Saint We Need in

These Days of Spiritual Confusion and Violence

Here at Corpus Christi in meeting rooms B and C, 7:30PM

Brother Joseph F. Schmidt, FSC will present a three-evening seminar on St. Therese. The evening will include a Q&A session as well as take home materials.

Monday, February 26 -Therese's Spiritual Vision: Challenge and Consolation In the document proclaiming Therese a Doctor of the Church, St. Pope John Paul II called her an "icon of God," the spiritual teacher for our day. This session will introduce the biography of Therese, also known as The Little Flower, and provide a summary of her rich teaching on God, Faith, Love, and holiness, - a wisdom that we can be confident is the authentic Gospel teaching in our modern time.

Tuesday, February 27 -Therese's Way of Charity and Our Call to Love as Jesus Loved - Therese is famous for her "Little Way," of spirituality. This session will focus on the characteristics of her little way of spiritual growth especially in helping us to understand and practice how to love ourselves, our neighbor, God, and even our enemy.

Wednesday, February 28 -Therese's Way of Praying and Our Call to Pray -Therese provides us with an example of how a Christian today can understand the Gospel teaching about prayer and our relationship with God. Her example and teaching on prayer is simple, without exceptional or miraculous elements, and yet an inviting, possible way for us to pray.
